

Coaches Corner

The track coach's assistant, Coach Chisolm, takes time to pose with two of his star athletes Shawn Tomlin and Pharez Adams.

Soaring High. Haskell Fields leaps over 22 feet, taking the lead of the region for 2001. Haskell, one of the few to qualify at nearly every meet and event, made it to region finals.

High Stepper. Junior Seidrck Wright uses his time to stretch before the race. After a football injury, he ran an excellent season and demonstrated true athletic ability.

Rookie Ruckus. Craig Jordan and Brandi Traynum are both eighth graders. They showed steady progression and are destined for an outstanding career.

• EVER SINCE THAT DAY, I'VE BEEN A RUNNING FOOL!

DONVILLE ROBINSON

"I run because I love the rush of emotion. It's a good and easy way to keep in shape too."

STEPHEN PINCKNEY

"I ran track to get back in shape and to get my knee right for football season."

SHELDON PIERCE

"I run to stay fit for football and to maintain my speed and endurance."
