On March 13th and 14th, the Senior Class proudly presented a play entitled, “Hillbilly Weddin’ ”.

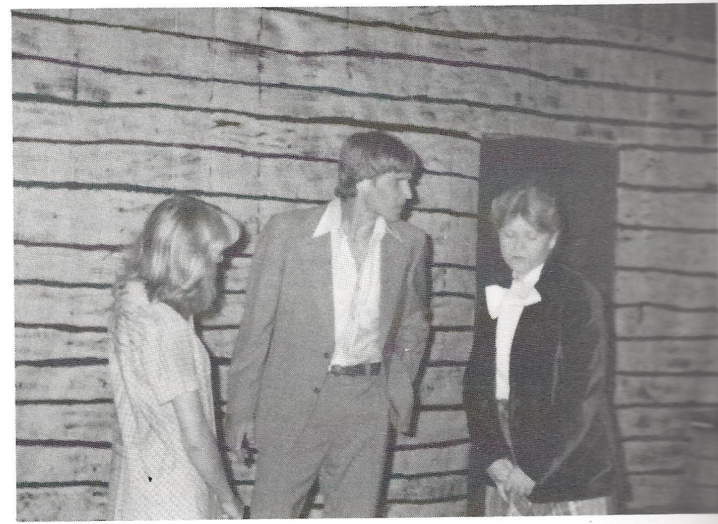

This play portrayed an unimaginable wedding. One of the main characters, Paw Belsnickle, had a problem. Rather-six problems in the form of six unmarried daughters. He desperately tried to find husbands for them. Paw’s antics, and those of his family and soon to be in-laws, kept the audience captivated. The senior class, under the direction of Mr. Casey Lyndaker, was commended for a job well done.
