

A Special Tribute

As I sat and thought about whom the 1990 Jacksonian should be dedicated to, one special person stood out in my mind. This person is dedicated, hardworking, and reliable. We, the annual staff, depend on him for delivering our pictures for the Jacksonian. In September, Charlie's studio in Charleston was completely destroyed from the effects of Hurricane Hugo; nevertheless, he worked diligently to make our 1990 Jacksonian a reality! Mr. Charles Tumbleston, we thank you for being dependable, cooperative, and understanding!

Thank You
Charles Tumbleston
