

Mr.-Miss AJA, Chris Williams, shows off his winning processions.

Take a sneak peek at these contestants.

Do you think these young ladies are nervous?

Strangely but surely, these are really the Sr. guys with Miss Paula.

Kristi Sease was chosen Miss Congeniality in the Miss competition.

An almost to life carousel with pink, purple, and white set off our stage. It not only enhanced the beauty of our stage, but it symbolized the dream for each contestant of withholding one of the 1992 Miss Andrew Jackson Academy titles. In addition, all the contestants were indeed the true beauty that enrich Andrew Jackson Academy.

The evening was filled with gorgeous girls, singing by both Keith Blanton and Carla Stewart, and dancing by Chasity Brandt. Even the Mr.-Miss contestants added character within the night.

Through it all four lucky ladies had their dream come true by the end of the evening. Our new 1992 Miss AJA was Elizabeth Nipper, runner-up was Greta Lightsey. Kristi Sease was chosen Miss Congeniality by the Miss contestants. Kimberly Carter proudly holds the Jr. Miss title, with Christy Jones runner-up. Kendall Carter also wears the Grammar Miss title, as Jody Martin stood as her runner-up. Rachael Stewart was crowned Little Miss AJA, and Darlene Brown placed runner-up. Last but not least, Chris Tina Puddina Williams better known as Chris Williams was crowned our 1992 Mr.-Miss Andrew Jackson Academy.
