

---

NINETEEN

Andrew Jackson Academy believes that the aim of education is to promote right reason and moral imagination and to explain studies to the student his place in the world. It emphasizes the academic studies that put in touch with the principles of history, literature, language, religion, mathematics and science through which he is enabled to make valid judgements.

The Academy also believes that a well trained body compliments an educated mind. Accordingly, it stresses athletics along with academics.

ADMINISTRATION