

"Tootie",

There comes a day like this in every father and mother's life. It makes their heart tighten in their chest. There's a lump in their throat and tears fill their eyes.

We can find no words at a time lie this to tell you just how proud we are of you.

Some day, too, you will know just how happy you have made our lives!!

With All Our Love,
Mom and Dad
Jessica and Gordon

Shannon,

It just seems like yesterday that we held you in our arms. We marveled that God brought you into our lives and made you our precious daughter. Today you've grown into a sweet and beautiful young lady, but in our eyes you will always be our little girl that we love so much!

Love,
Moma & Daddy

Chris,

Shannon,

Now that you're graduating, I guess you think you're mature and grown up. GUESS AGAIN!!

Your lovable

charming sisters
