

The Greatest Influence

Being in the eighth grade and being fourteen years old, you can have many different people who are great influences in your life. People influence you in a variety of ways. They can influence you to set your goals high and strive to reach them. Amanda Dantzler's aunt has influenced her to become a nurse.

"My sister has influenced me, because she lets me know that things aren't as hard as they seem," stated Angela Thompson.

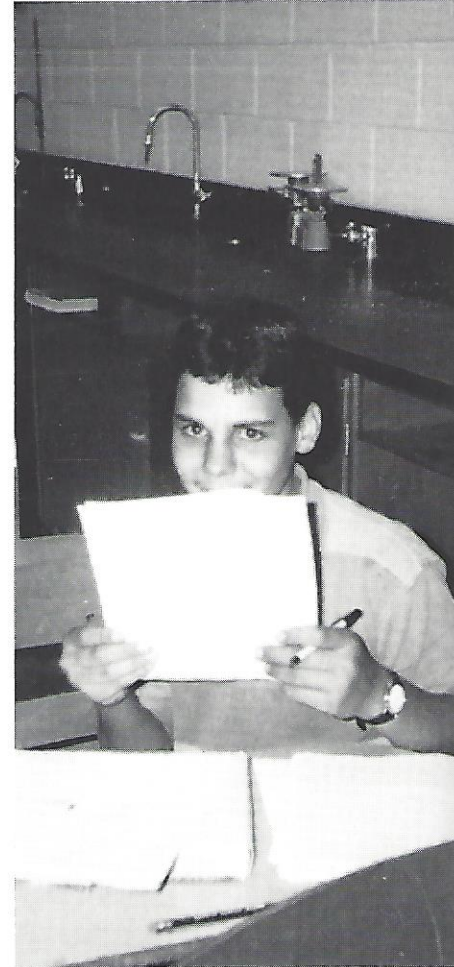

"My uncle influences me, because he taught me how to hunt and fish," said Chris Brunson.

Amanda Ingram replied, "My parents because they have set an example for me to follow."

Whoever influences you is a person you will remember for a long time.

Ricky Varnadoe has a very sly smile on his face. Could he be hiding something?

Chris Brunson takes time out from studying his papers to see what Tiffany wants.
