

Only One More

Jason Stanley is sitting here thinking, I'm too handsome for this school.

The Juniors were asked how they felt about having only one more year left before graduating. Joy Ackerman exclaimed, "I think it's great because I'm ready for that party time and a chance to be on my own!" Jay Walling stated, "It's fun that we're going to get out, but scary not knowing what we're going to do yet." Jason Stanley put everything in perspective when he said, "It's decent." Steven Beard and Eric Polk agreed that they were just ready to get out. Tiffany Harrell exclaimed, "I'm looking forward to the cruise, as well as graduating. I'm somewhat terrified by the fact that I have to go out in the REAL WORLD!" The Juniors look upon their next year with happiness and sorrow. A lot of important decisions will have to be made. Decisions take a lot of responsibility in making the right one.

Jay Walling displays two talents he possesses, looking at the camera and writing at the same time.

Pamela Arant is thinking of ways to get revenge on Will Willis for giving her rabbit ears.
