

What Lies Ahead

GRADUATES!! Sounds like a serious word. Well, it is. This year, the seniors were busy working hard to get money for their cruise. Whether it was selling doughnuts, fruit, or raffle tickets, they were earning the money it would take to pay for the one thing they looked forward to — the cruise. This year the graduates will begin a new life. Many of the graduates will head off to college, which can be frightening. Whatever each graduate decides to do with his life, they are out to accomplish the goals that they have set for themselves.

Test Time! Tripp reviews his notes before taking a test for Ms. Paula.

Which book? Greta reaches for her chemistry book before the bell rings.
