

The Confederates huddle around Coach Boyleston and Coach Dickson for instructions on the next play.

A cool crisp night, fans sitting in the stands covered with blankets, cheerleaders yelling on the sidelines . . . ah, yes, it's FOOTBALL SEASON. What an exhilarating season our team had. Even though there were some losses to record along with the wins, the team played their hearts out. The Andrew Jackson fans can say our football team played tough and with unforgettable determination. We can't forget the coaching team who gave many hours of hard work to the boys preparing them for competition. Some people frown upon the idea of eight man football but it has proven to be an advantage for AJA.

Sometimes it's hard to contain the enthusiasm and energy of Stevie Brabham.

You're not going any further with this ball determines Shaun Brandt. Stevie Brabham is ready to assist.
