

Once you become a Junior, there are many jobs to be done. The most important one is getting money for the prom. This is a special time in one's life and should be remembered. Also we have the ordering of our high school rings. What a privilege to finally be able to say we have only one more year of school left. Now that's what I call getting down to business.

Pretty as a picture. Christie Rutland gladly gives the photographer a smile.

The Junior Class finds French a bit difficult but with the help of Mrs. Marsha Hughes they'll be ready to visit Paris!

Is Barbie Kinard making "eyes" at Jeremy Bessinger?

Laid back. Is that how you would describe John Williams?
