

Fifth grade students enjoy the privilege of their library period.

Little cheerleader Lori Varnadoe enjoys the experience of cheering at ball games.

Josh Barnes enjoys carving a pumpkin while Kyle Hiers watches.

On August 21, 1995, Andrew Jackson Academy had an extraordinary outlook. Everyone enjoyed the changes and have adapted well. Being the 25th Anniversary of our Jacksonian, we simply appreciate everyone's willingness over the years to diligently work on yearbook materials and have built a tradition of excellent yearbooks. We hope to keep the tradition going now and in the years to come.

Andrew Jackson Academy
Est. 1971

Michael Kinard, below, joined the junior class in November '95.

