

Yes, this is Miss AJA Ginny Walling hard at work. Is this a rare sight or what?

No, that's not what you think in Shaun's mouth. David Wilson and Shaun Brandt eagerly go to their next class.

Too much of a good thing ... not really. But then from a Junior's point of view, they say YES!

Ordering class rings was a thrill but nothing compared to their arrival. The days went by so slowly while waiting to hear from Jostens.

How about an orange? How about thousands of them? Can you believe an orange turns into a beautiful Junior-Senior Prom? Well, actually, its the profits from the sale of oranges that produces such a lovely prom. Mrs. Marsha provides the leadership.

The anticipation of being Seniors in '97 is almost too much sometimes. Now that will really be too much of a good thing!

Playboy next? Stacy Fisk knows too well how to pose.
