

Jason,

Congratulations on a job well done. You have made us very proud to call you Son and Brother.

Where does time go? It seems like only yesterday you started kindergarten, just a tiny little boy. Now you are a young man about to begin a new chapter in your life.

We love you now and always.

Momma, Daddy & Andrea

I am more blessed than most because I have my very own "Barbie Doll."

You have given me many memories of our high school days and they will always be very special to me.

As the song says, "I will always love you."

*Yours,
Shaun*
