

Dedication

The 1997 Jacksonian staff is proud to honor a young woman who is a true Confederate and a loving and caring Christian example for all who are touched by her life.

We dedicate the 1997 Jacksonian to:

Mrs. Lynne Grubbs

Mrs. Lynne has a genuine concern for each student at Andrew Jackson. Her desire is for each student to do their best academically, athletically and spiritually. Mrs. Lynne goes the second mile with her duties in the canteen. She plans and does most of the work in preparing "special" dinners so we can have a variety at lunch time.

Mrs. Lynne, we don't say it often enough, but "THANKS" and "WE LOVE YOU!"
