

Without the help of a dedicated administration and faculty a school would not be successful. AJA is blessed to have such dedication. The administration and faculty are able to advise, instruct, and help in many ways when the students need their help or direction.