Elementary life is the best. To be young and innocent are to be envied by the older generations. Quick to learn and easy to forgive are two more great qualities of the young. The elementary school is blessed to have such loving and caring teachers. You're getting a good education at AJA. Take full advantage.