

It's A Good Time

Joshua Grubbs
Ashley Price
Cassie Walling
Rhett Willis

The fourth grade class of four evens out pretty well with two girls — Cassie and Ashley — and two guys — Rhett and Joshua.

Rhett says, "I'll give you this, Cassie, if you'll give me a break on the football field."

NOT Jeff Gordon ... but Joshua Grubbs. Joshua could be heading to stardom because of his athletic ability.

During school, the fourth graders seem to have a good time in whatever they do.

While the girls are trying to be serious, the guys always find a way to aggravate them. They enjoy their free time as well as class time. Cassie Walling said, "I hate everything in school except recess." She was just kidding, Mrs. Horton.

The fourth grade class is very athletic. The guys can hardly wait to play football.

The fourth graders prove you don't have to have a large class to have a good time.
