The second grade class is ahead of their time because they are so bright and eager to learn. In the future they hope to become doctors, painters, and pro football players. Most of the second graders enjoy sharing their classes with the third grade but Jacob said, "I hate having classes together." The second graders really enjoy TV. They are bright young students who are truly ahead of their time.

Kayla Hutson is ready to begin her work in second grade. Work, hard, Kayla!

It's the style! Faren Myers models the popular back pack for the second grade class.
