

Academics are “Number One” at AJA. The faculty and administration constantly stress the importance of a good basic foundation of knowledge that can be learned from books and instructions. Some lessons are learned from experience and maturity; however, working together the faculty and student body at AJA are preparing for success in any field of study or work the student chooses.