

The sports program at Andrew Jackson Academy is an important part of the total package. The athletes receive a great learning experience as they participate and learn responsibility, leadership ship and cooperation. The coaches and assistants are role models as well as advisers and friends. There is a great deal of pride at AJA whether the game is won or lost.