Being in the ninth grade feels like you are caught in the middle of grades 7-12!

The favorite part of the day seems to be 3:05 ... you guessed it. It's time to go home.

Adam Harmon would win the title of class clown although he isn't really funny! Joe Martin seems to always be getting into trouble.

It means a great deal to the freshmen to be called Confederates. It means having the ability to be great in whatever you do in an every way. It would be hard to select the best Confederate; however, we are all true Confederates.

On the weekends, Lauren Cooler enjoys being with her boyfriend and Melissa Steinmeyer enjoys shopping.
