

Annie,

It seems not long ago God sent us a very special little girl and now seventeen years later, she has grown into a very special young lad. Time has passed too quickly. Each of us is very proud of you and all your accomplishments. You are a very special daughter, sister, and granddaughter and we love you very much. We are truly blessed. Your granddaddy left you too soon but he has been your special angel that has helped guide you in the right direction. I know he is smiling and is very proud of the young lady you have become. He was your biggest fan and loved you so much. You have your whole life ahead of you. With hard work and faith in God you can achieve anything. Whatever you choose to pursue in your life, you will have the love and support of your family and your special angel. You will be successful in all your endeavors in life because you are a winner.

Love,
Mama, Daddy, Jennifer, Abby, Granny, Jill, and Kelly
