

Amber,

We are so proud of you. You are a beautiful young woman. Keep God first in your life and all things will be made possible through Him.

*We love you,
Mom, Charlie, and Cory*

Amber,

Just yesterday you were wanting to start school so you could ride the yellow school bus. The time has passed much too quickly. May all your hopes and dreams come true. Always have faith in yourself. You can do anything you set your mind to. Follow your heart, but use your head and may God guide and bless you always.

*Love you,
Dad, Patty, Robert, and Katelyn*
