

~Our Littlest Lizard~

We are so proud of what you have accomplished in life so far that no words can describe. We have seen you grow from a tiny little flower into the beautiful and talented young lady that you are. We know that you will go very far in life and-we have never doubted your abilities to succeed. You can always count on us to back you up in life as you always have. Here's to that next giant step in your life. Congrats little one! Always.

Momma and Daddy(#2)

Heya's Boo!!!

We just wanted to write to say how much we love you and how proud of you we are. You have certainly grown up to be a gracious young woman! Are we proud of you because you are smart? No, even though you are very smart and quite clever, we wouldn't expect anything else from you. Are we proud of you because you are beautiful and gracious? No, you were born with those qualities and have just improved on them as you were growing up.

Baby Girl, you know we have been through some tough times and have lived in some strange and difficult situations. I think what we are the proudest of is your ability to adapt to those situations and your resiliency to overcome obstacles. Even when you were young and came to visit us in foreign countries, you not only met the challenge of embracing different cultures but were able to leave your on mark on the people you just met. Everywhere Dawn and I go, our friends always ask "When is Elizabeth coming back to visit?". It is a unique ability that you posses that I think will take you far in your life. I am proud to have you as a daughter and look forward to where your life leads you and the decisions you will make.

Remember on your 10th birthday when it just you, Dawn, and I went to Germany to visit where you were born? Well, besides your birthday, I wanted your first remembered visit to Europe to be with people that will always love you no matter what.

Take care, Elizabeth All our love

Dad and Dawn
