Sophomores

Getting driver's license, playing varsity sports, first love...all exciting events for sophomores!

Having no new students this year the sophomores still stay wild and crazy like usual. In only two years from now these eager teenagers will finally be out in the real world for the first time. They all seem like they are ready for it but if they only knew! Each and every student in this class plays a sport of some kind. Out of the three girls in this class only two of them cheer. All the girls agree that if it wasn't for the guys in our class we would have some boring days! Singing has been one of their main priorities this year. They always seem to have a new song in their heads to annoy the teachers with. In the summer the girls love to hit the beach and hang with their friends. The guys on the other hand work and when they have the time love to go fishing. After school each day most of them have some type of athletic practice but others watch television or do chores at home. The Class of 2008 is one to watch because you never know what's gonna happen and who's gonna be responsible!
