

This year at May Day our young grammar school children all performed together in the corn patch of Hee Haw.

The high school gathers in one big circle. We are certain to hear them a mile away!

Look at our beautiful May Attendants perform the May Pole traditional dance!

These two cuties look like they are in heaven sitting in the horse buggy.

