

McKenzie,

No one has to tell me how lucky I am to have you, because I knew a long time ago.

I remember all the little things, so much about living, loving, and giving, and these are things I will never forget.

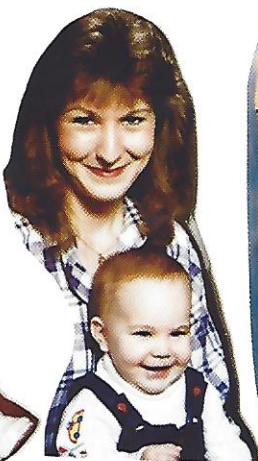

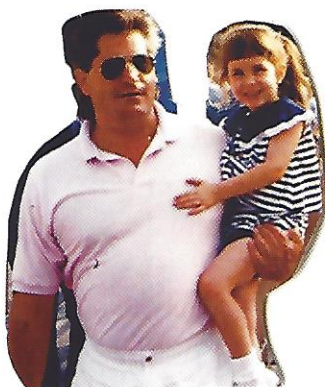

Please don't ever forget that I love you and appreciate all the successful accomplishments that you have worked so hard to achieve. I love you with all my heart and realize that you're not only my wonderful daughter but you have turned into a remarkable young woman that has made me very proud! I love you!

Love always,
Mom

McKenzie ,

I am very fortunate to have you as my daughter. It has been a pleasure raising you. I have watched you grow through the years from an active toddler, to a young tomboy, and now to a very mature, young woman.

You participating in dance, softball, horseback riding, cheerleading, Student Government, the Beta Club, and everything else that you do has made you into a very sensitive, caring, and successful young adult. I am very proud to have you as my only daughter. I know you hold a very bright future ahead. I love you!

Love,
Dad
