

Dear Heather,
 It seems like yesterday that our beautiful little girl was born. Now you are a Senior! Heather, you have become a very special mature, young lady. This year has been very hard for you losing your dad, but always remember he's your guardian angel. Remember to use all the morals that he has instilled in you and be all you can be. You have worked hard and made us very proud in so many ways. Always remember you are daddy's little girl and never forget to Live life to the fullest!

Love,
 Mom, Derek, Kayce, Granny and Rebel
