

John Paul,

You were a sweet little boy who gave much pleasure to your Granddad and me. I am very proud of you and Granddad would be too if he was still living. I'm so happy you're graduating high school. Just put God first in your life and everything will work out.

Love Always,

John Paul,

I am very proud of you and all of the accomplishments you have made. You have turned into a nice, well behaved young man. The sky is full of stars and dreams and there's no limit on what you can achieve. May God watch over you always.
