

Chris,

You are so many things, a first-born son, a grandson, an older brother, a nephew, a mechanic, an admired and respected young man, and now, a senior. We love you and we are all so proud of you. We hope your life and your future will be filled with all the love, happiness and joy that you have always given to all of us. May God bless you, guide you and protect you as you journey into your future.

*We love you,
Your Family*
