

Brandon,

You are such an amazing and respectful young man. We hope you realize just how very proud your entire family is of you. You have added so much joy, happiness, love and laughter to our lives and we pray that your future is as bright and wonderful as you are. You are truly a blessing from God and we are honored to call you our son and baby brother.

We love you,
Your Family

