

IN MEMORIAM

To us who knew him, Mr. Williams was a civic leader, church leader, and school leader personified. His untimely passing meant a great loss to our community. To know him was to appreciate the many things he did for all the people of his community. The efforts, plans, and influences which he caused to be brought about while serving as a member of the Board of Trustees will be long remembered.