

Foreword

This is our own Bells High! These are her boys and girls, her faculty, her activities, her achievements. In reality, this is a portrayal of us.

In this edition of the Crossroads, we have attempted to capture, also, a bit of the happiness, the warmth of friendship which permeates all phases of our school life.

The years spent at Bells High will forever be a part of the life of each of us. We have grown up together, learned together. We have lived with our alma mater only to love her.

If this volume will aid in recalling the achievements, activities, scenes, and people with whom we have been so pleasantly associated this year, then our purpose will have been accomplished and we will not have labored in vain.
