

ADMINISTRATION

As Bells High School grows older each year, the efforts of her administrators become increased. Co-operative efforts between the faculty and administrators provide more opportunities for the students' educational, recreational, and extra-curricular interests.