

ATHLETICS

Basketball, football, baseball and track offer the students a diversity of sports from which to choose their favorites. By participation students help to keep better physically fit. People cheering for the teams, the excitement of a last minute goal or basket, the thrill of winning and bitter gall of defeat are some sidelights of the athletic program at Bells. Students grow when they face these situations in the many phases of sports.