

CLASSES

Freshmen, Sophmores, Juniors, Seniors -- all are active in a drama which gradually unfolds as the day-to-day life of a student at a small, active school. The newness of a semi-adult life and the awesome wonder of events hitherto unknown bring sparkle to the lives of Freshmen. Sophmores, a little bored with the dull routine of school, enter into the extra-curricular activities with zest. Juniors sell magazines, put on the Harvest Carnival, and add other activities to the school year for the funds with which they present the Junior-Senior Prom. Seniors look back upon the lowly underclassmen and forward to the Junior-Senior Prom and to the long-awaited and long-worked for graduation.