

ADVERTISING

The people who advertise their places of business in school publications and the students who advertise public school functions -- barbecues, plays, recitals, ball games -- play an important role in our school. Without their financial help we could not do the job.