

COMMERCE

The Commerce department plays an important part to students at Bells who plan to go into the commercial field in the future. Typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping are offered. This year Personal Typing has been added for the students who will need only a slight knowledge of typing for their own personal use.

