

AGRICULTURE

The boys in Mr. Smoak's agriculture class participate in many interesting activities during the year. They work with animals, take part in soil judging contests, go on field trips, and work on building projects. Through these activities they prepare to become the farmers of the future.

