

HOME ECONOMICS

In the Home Economics class, girls learn the fundamentals of cooking, sewing, and other domestic activities. Along with their class work the students are required to perform certain activities at home. They are learning today to build better homes for tomorrow.

