

OUR ENVIRONMENT

Oscar, a replica of a human body, aids in the study of Biology.

Science is important for offering assistance to those entering college or commercial schools and learning about our environment. At Bells General Science, Advanced Science, Biology, and Physics are taught.

In biology, the microscope is of great use.