

The Study of English —

The English department strives to help each student. It is hoped that each student will learn to communicate effectively in speech and writing.

Mrs. Peters tries to help her students individually.

Allan is explaining morphemes.

James gives a report on Chaucer.

Mrs. Spire's class works with dictionaries often.

