

Agriculture — A Must for Future Farmers

Some of Mr. Smoak's students and their greenhouse.

This course offers extensive training in agriculture. The class participates in many interesting activities during the year such as field trips, farming programs, and Future Farmer activities.

David and Terry working with the electric saw in the shop.

Travis is preparing to take his hog to the fair to put on display.