

History

The aim of the History department is to teach students about the past, help them to understand the present, and to prepare them for the future.

Mr. Ulmer helps Phyllis to locate Austria.

Students here take notes vigorously.

Mr. Killian takes advantage of his new equipment in his classes.

Mr. Killian and Claudette, his teacher aide, go through their files.