

This group is taking a shot at finger painting.

Belinda is trying her hand at a geometric type of painting.

Mr. Mackintosh is placing some of his students' work on display.

Art — An Outlet for Expression

This year is the first year that art has been taught at Bells. It is proving to be very interesting and rewarding to its students.