

As editor of the 1961 EXCALIBUR, I would like to take this opportunity to give my thanks to everyone who has helped make the publication of this book possible. With the help of the staff this book has become a reality out of a vision.

It has been our wish to produce a yearbook that will serve in a way to bring back pleasant memories of the year at C. M. A.; the laughter, fun and companionship which the students have shared; the hours spent enriching our minds in the classrooms and developing our personalities through extracurricular activities. This book attempts to record a few of the events in a most important phase of our lives.

My thanks and appreciation to the members of the Annual Staff and to the faculty officers for their efforts in helping to get this material ready for the press. My sincere thanks go to Lieutenant Wearmouth for his guidance during the year.

Thanks Again,
Patrick Langley, Editor.
