MILITARY — Camden Military Academy is strictly a military school with the discipline and control expected in such a school. But the military goes beyond control and discipline. Any young man must feel a great sense of accomplishment as he assumes his place in the ranks of a good military organization, and a sense of pride must swell within him as he salutes the colors in their daily descent at retreat.

Camden Military Academy is designated as an MI Junior ROTC School and is rated an honor unit with distinction by the Department of the Army. All cadets are required to participate in the military program which includes drill, ceremonies, and two classes in military science and tactics per week. The varsity rifle team and the crack drill platoon are supervised by the Military Department.

Military training is one of the most valuable influences on the growth of a young man. It teaches him to take orders before he is given the authority to give orders; it makes him feel responsible to his fellow students for his own actions. As a cadet develops, more authority and responsibility are placed in him. Military training is unquestionably one of the great assets of Camden.

As a cadet prepares to graduate from Camden Military Academy, he looks back on his past years that have gained him the knowledge and maturity that every man acquires in the corps of cadets of Camden Military Academy.

DEDICATION '75

DEDICATION OF APPRECIATION TO ZELLIE L. WILLIAMS

Mr. Zellie L. Williams came to Camden Military Academy in June 1958 as superintendent of maintenance. He has held that position until his retirement in October 1974.

During his long and faithful service he never found any task too great to be undertaken or too small to deserve his attention. He consistently put his obligation to the Academy before any personal consideration.

His outstanding character and integrity have caused him to be held in high esteem by all who know him; and his unselfishness, kindness, and consideration for others have endeared him to all.

With deep appreciation for his long and faithful service to this institution, we dedicate this annual and with it our wishes for a long and satisfying retirement.
