Twenty Years Proud

A company formation during the early days of Camden Military Academy. The old style two story barracks looms in the background as a reminder of days gone by since our beginning. Even though this scene is many years old, it is reminiscent of our many formations today.

A traditional salute of "eyes right" as a unit passes in front of the reviewing stand. In December of this year, the battalion held a parade in honor of a departing faculty member, SFC Cayton. The parade is the highest honor a military unit can bestow upon an individual.

We look back into CMA's early history to see the inside of an old style open barracks. We have come a long way, to brick barracks with individual two-man rooms. This scene might seem a bit harsh and austere, but it also helped to form the foundation of CMA as we know it today.

Work never seems to get done. Keeping all of our facilities clean and shipshape takes the effort of all the corps. To maintain sharp rooms, barracks and selves is a 24 hour a day job. But the work pays off as the USA has rated CMA "An Honor Unit with Distinction."

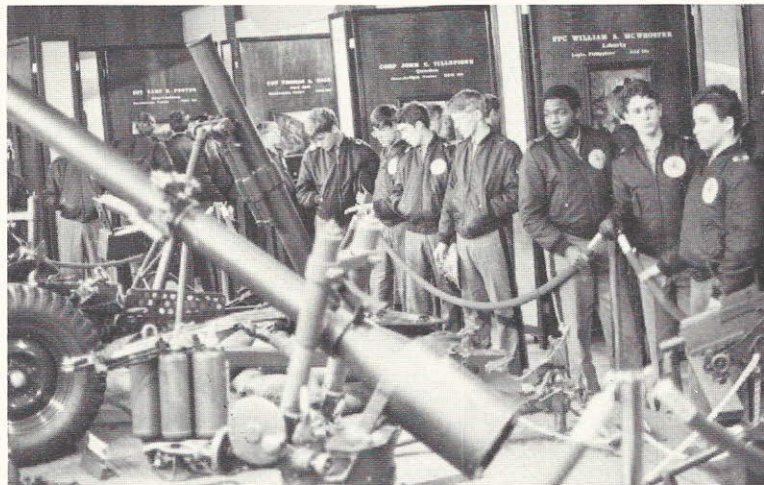

Field trips to such historic sites as Fort Sumter off Charleston, S. C., help us understand our past. Our past is inherently part of our future. To understand where we stand today in 1978, we must remember CMA's past. Humble beginnings with a handful of faculty and students have grown into a proud unit of approximately 250 cadets. Our future looks bright as we view a reflection of our past.

Camden Military Academy and Her Community

Camden Military Academy is ardently involved in her community. We are tied to her in myriad ways. Cadets from our Academy participate in many prestigious and worthy local happenings, such as: The Camden Heart Fund Drive; Veterans Day ceremonies; The Carolina and Colonial Cup Steeplechases; Camden Community Theater productions; Camden Fine Arts Center activities; The American Cancer Society Fund Drive; The Camden Parade; forensic activities throughout the state and nation; plus countless others of no less importance. We of the Academy feel the tie that binds Camden and our school grows stronger and stronger each and every year.

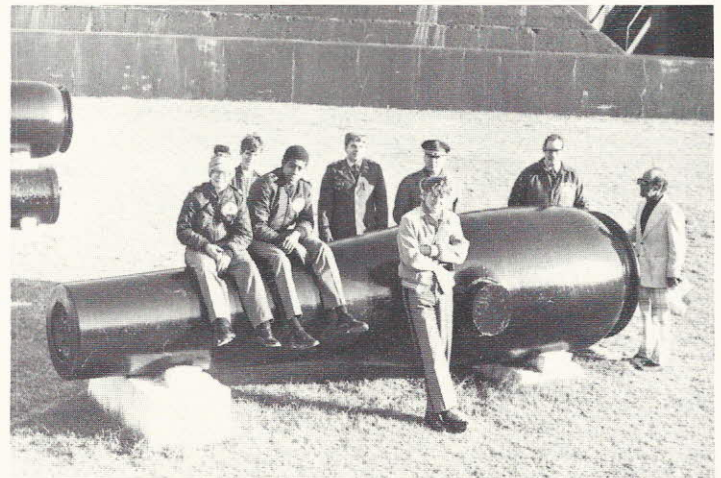

A choral performance in conjunction with a church choir. Camden cadets held a Christmas performance prior to our December Christmas furlough. Cadets in the choir have also appeared at a number of churches and in a play.

Cadets are observing the military weaponry at a museum during a tour of Ft. Jackson in Columbia, in which 168 members of the corps toured this training facility and training sites. Cadets got a taste of real Army life.

Cadets in 7th and 8th grade classes are shown above during a tour of Riverbanks Zoo in Columbia, S. C. This day off from the usual schedule was spent learning a bit more about nature and her creatures.

Members of the 7th and 8th grade classes toured historic Fort Sumter in Charleston, S. C. These cadets enjoyed a taste of history that marked the beginning of our Civil War.

Organization Of

Camden Military Academy was founded in 1949 as Camden Academy. The present administration acquired the school in 1958 and it has subsequently become an eleemosynary institution of approximately 250 cadets. Camden is strictly a male boarding school with no day students. The aim of our academy is to develop young men mentally, physically and morally. Camden is a military school. Because of this, cadets must wear their uniforms at all times and obey strict military customs and courtesies each and every day.

The corps of cadets is formed into one infantry battalion. This battalion is broken down into the following units: A or Alpha Company; B or Bravo Company; C or Charlie Company; Band Company and staff. Each company is commanded by a cadet captain and is divided into two platoons, each commanded by a cadet second lieutenant. Each platoon is made up of three squads of seven to ten cadets. All of the companies compete for the distinction of being awarded at the end of the school year, Honor Company.

Chief Chaplain (MG) Norris Kelly, USA, during a visit to Camden, with the cadet lieutenant colonel at the traditional honor guard. Cadet 1SG Minick bears the General's colors. The corps held a review in honor of the chaplain who also toured the campus and facilities and spoke to the cadet corps in our gym. The corps' performance was appreciated not only by the Chaplain but also by the cadets themselves.

Cadet officers saluting SFC Richard Cayton during a review held in his honor. The corps paid their respects to this man upon his departure from the Academy. "Old Slick," during his tenure at Camden, did his job to perfection. We of the corps of cadets are grateful for all SFC Cayton did to make this institution better.

Camden is involved in numerous parades throughout the state of South Carolina during the school year.

The Corps of Cadets 1977-1978

Camden Military Academy is designated as an MI Junior ROTC School and is rated an Honor Unit with Distinction by the Department of the Army. Cadets participate in a military program which includes drill, ceremonies, leadership development classes, tours of U. S. Military installations and firms. The varsity championship rifle team and crack drill team are supervised by the Military Department.

Military training is one of the most valuable influences on the growth of a young man. It teaches him to take orders before authority and responsibility are placed on him. Military training is undoubtedly one of the greatest assets of Camden.

As a cadet prepares to graduate from Camden Military Academy, he looks back on his past years that have given him the knowledge and maturity that every man acquires in the corps of cadets.

Annual Federal Inspection

The President of the inspection team reviewing the honor guard.

The band provided the music during the honor guard ceremony.

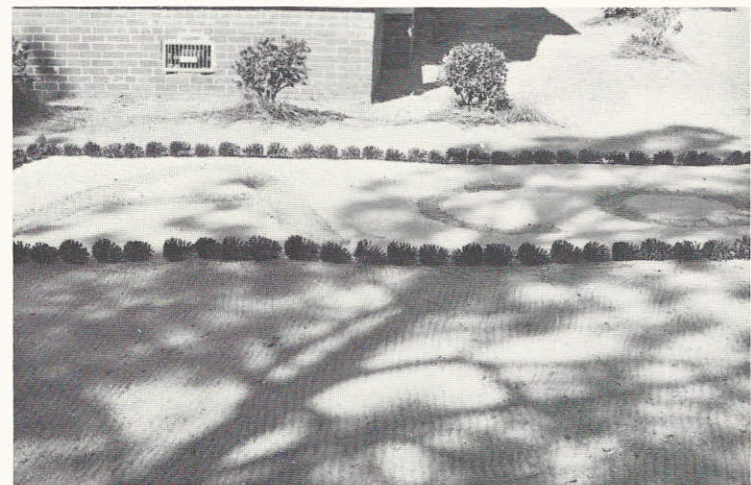

The inspector troops the line during the early morning ceremony.

Members of the inspection team toured the company barracks and areas during their day at C.M.A.

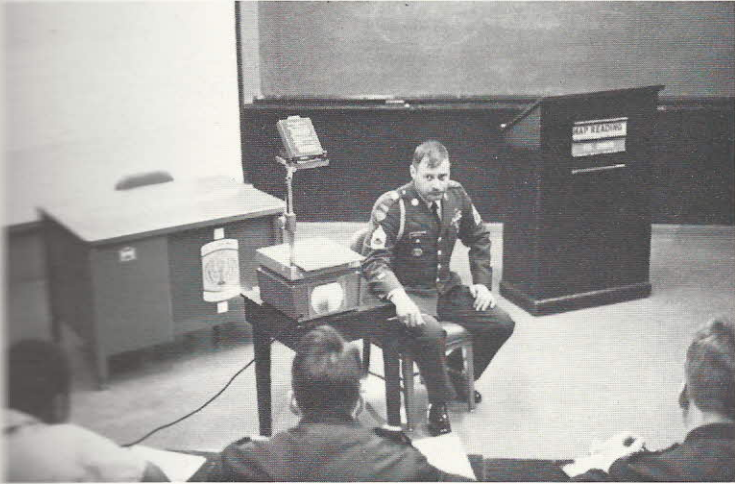

Each school year the United States Army designates a committee of officers to evaluate Camden Military Academy's JROTC Department. This year the inspection team was comprised of members of the ROTC staff of Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina. The team inspected cadets, barracks, administrative records, campus, and security of military facilities.

In the past, Camden Military Academy has scored 100% to earn highest ranking, that of Honor Unit with Distinction, earned through full participation of every CMA cadet, working as individuals and as a team.

Each of the four companies worked very hard preparing themselves and their barracks and areas.

Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps

Senior commissioned officers make up the battalion review board, which evaluates and makes recommendations for promotion within the corps of cadets. Their jobs take much of their time and energy and their experiences here at the Academy will aid them in future endeavors.

Commissioned officers comprise the Officer Corps of Camden Military Academy. Their responsibilities range from command of an individual platoon to staff responsibilities of the Adjutant and JROTC departments. An officer is distinguished by his gold hatband, maroon sash, and sword.

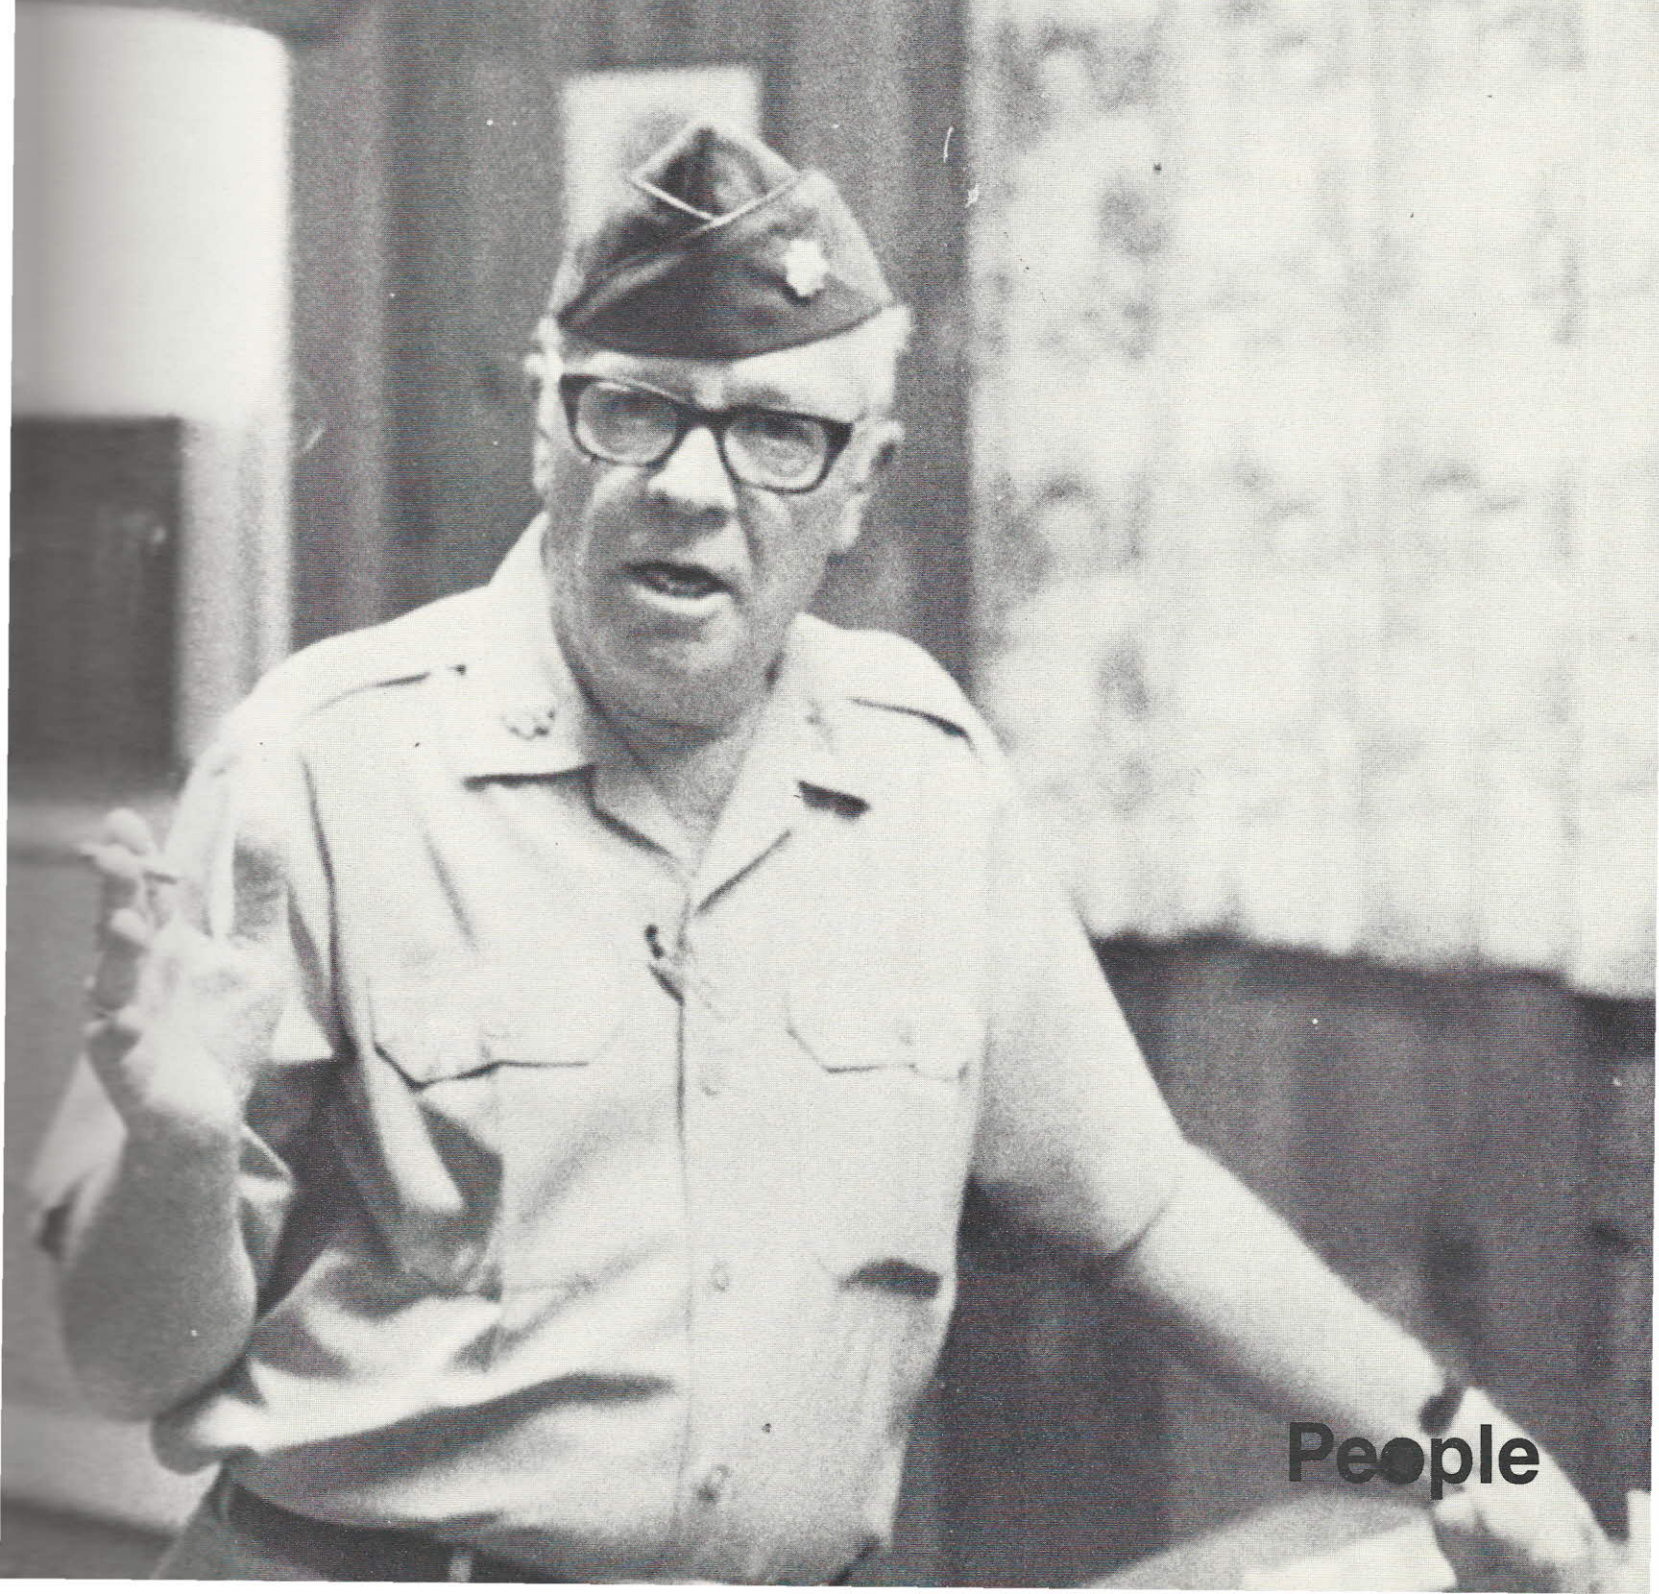

Cadet Officers: Wells, Whittle, Owens, Garbade, Barth, Boltin, Blank, Warlick, Garner, Fincher, Watts, Wallace, Adelman, Bentson, Davis, Anglin, Cato, Oliver, Swager, Ballard and Bruce.

The cannon detail is responsible for the retreat ceremony every evening and the formal retreat at the weekly battalion parade. Between firing of the cannon and lowering of the flag, these cadets are kept busy.

Cannon detail: Cadet 1SG Alberto Aviles; Cadet MSG Glenn Cottle; Cadet CPL Miguel Irias.

The team hopes that as the season progresses, players will win the conference and continue the winning tradition at C.M.A. Coaches Gary Fast and Steve Tucker both have experience with college baseball and hope their knowledge, coupled with an energetic team will find C. Debate

As reported earlier, Camden Military Academy's varsity debate team of Pete Adelman and Mark Lewis qualified to represent South Carolina in the National Bicentennial Debates in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Adelman, Lewis, and Chaplain Swager, debate coach and team sponsor, embarked early Monday afternoon for a long week of debate.

The Adjutant, CMA's Best Informer, The Adjutant Staff publishes the school newspaper each Friday.

First semester Major Gale's advanced composition class accepts reporting assignments during instructional periods, secures data, edits copy as a group, types material, establishes layout, and, with Mrs. Pylant's unflinching help and cooperation, publishes and distributes the paper.

Second semester Major Gale's fifth period senior English class performs the same service.

The National Bicentennial Debates are sponsored by the Virginia Independence Bicentennial Commission, and the Bicentennial Council of the Thirteen Original States, with the cooperation of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation and the College of William and Mary. The debates are held each year of the Bicentennial celebration through 1981.

Bands

The Concert Band has participated in three programs this year.

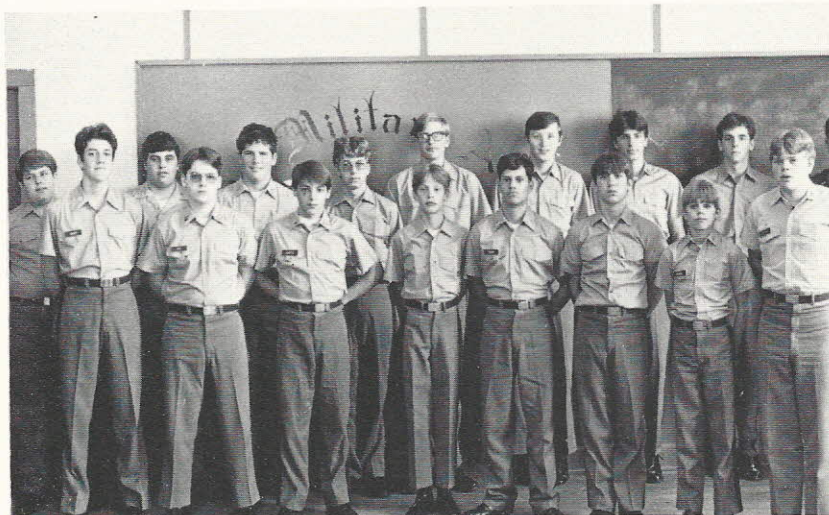

Mr. Guy Hutchins directing the Concert Band.

CMA's instrumental music program has grown and improved under the direction of Captain Green. The band has participated in numerous parades and this Christmas in Newberry, placed second overall when competing against four "A" schools.

The Marching Band's main function is to play at Sunday afternoon dress parades at which they present five complete marches and "The Star Spangled Banner." "Sound Off" gives the band a chance to show its musical ability as it troops the line, often with a new piece of music in its repertoire.

But the Marching Band is complimented by the Jazz Ensemble, the Pep Band (which provides extra support at ball games), and the Concert Band, with pieces ranging from Beethoven to the Carpenters.

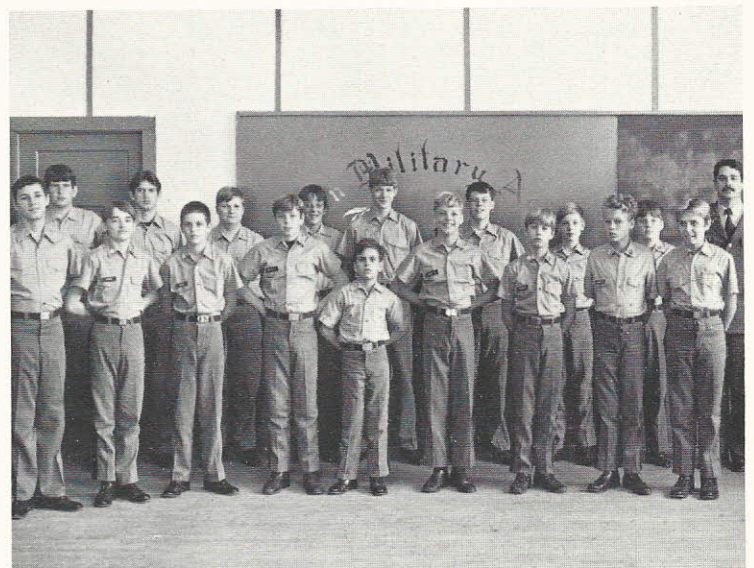

Assisting this year is Mr. Guy Hutchins, one of the last living members of John Philip Sousa's band, who coaches our musical groups. Able to play every instrument in our band and more, he also helps to repair broken instruments.

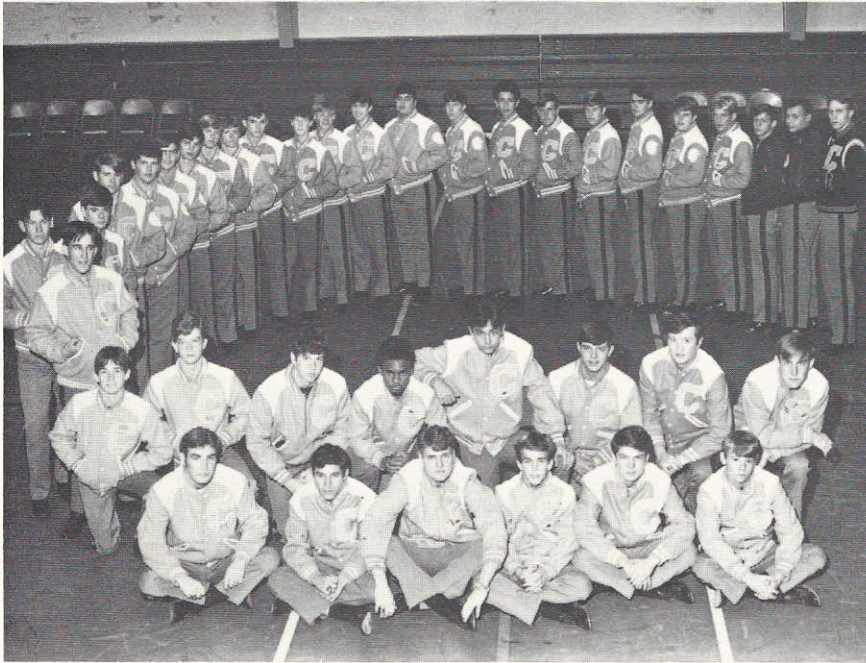

The Pep Band provides that extra support at basketball as well as football games.

The Jazz Band

The Intermediate Band

Block C

Block "C" is comprised of cadets who have lettered in a varsity sport at CMA. Our intermural athletic program includes several sports in which cadets may earn varsity letters: football, basketball, soccer, baseball, track, and golf.

At right, Capt. Thorp and his crew work in the concession stand at one of our home football games.

Flight Club

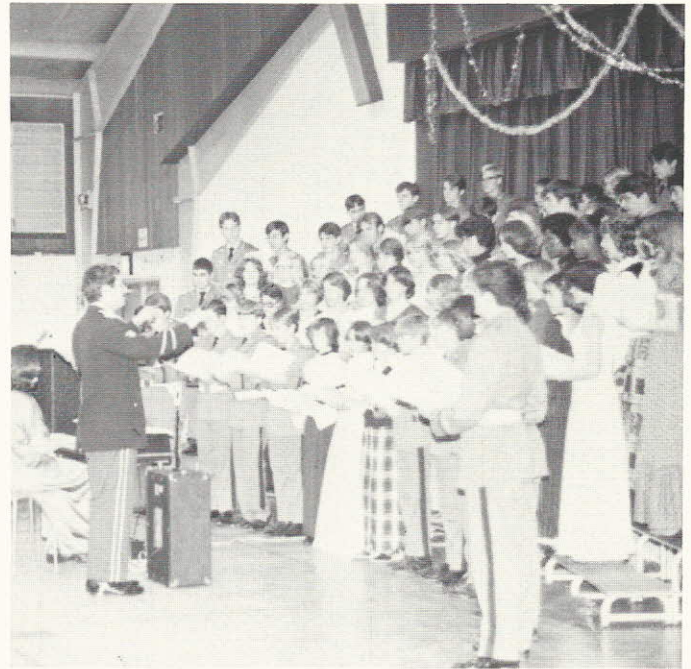

The CMA plant adjoins Camden's municipal airport, Woodward Field. Interest in air activity is understandably keen among cadets and this year four students earned pilot licenses. First semester, under SFC Cayton's tutelage, CMA student pilots appeared in four three-hour ETV flight instruction programs as they received standard ground school training.

Gary Parker, Bernard Elam, Charles Bodenhamer, Joe Greenburg and Tracy Jones.

Chorus

This is the second year that CMA has boasted a chorus performing under the direction of Captain Green. This year the group gave a Christmas program for the cadet corps and their guests while combined with the Bethesda Presbyterian Girls Choir and the girls' choruses from Camden High School and the Camden Middle Schools.

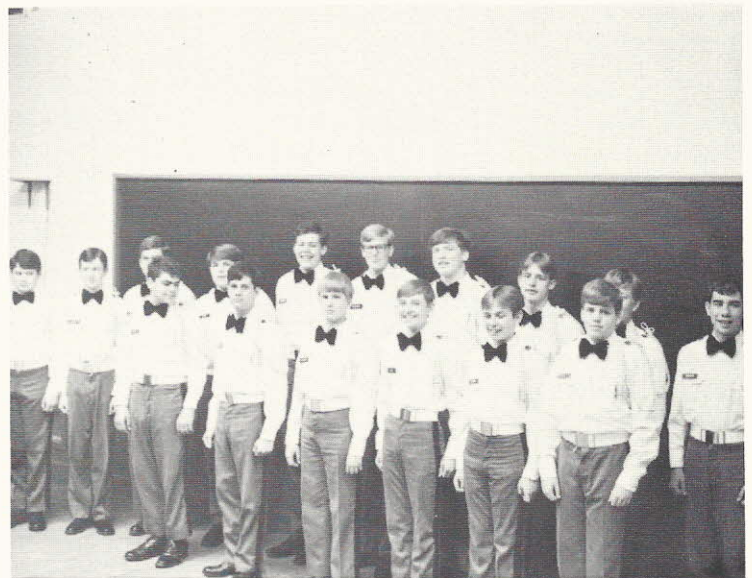

The CMA chorus sings contemporary, secular, and religious songs and hymns and is gaining recognition throughout the community.

The Dance Committee headed by David Moshoures and advised by Commander Feltham, had a good year. Bands like "Spunk" and "Mellow Music" made the Camden-Carlisle, Christmas, Junior-Senior, and Commencement Dances enjoyable successes.

The Debate Team, coached by Chaplain Swager, participated in the Carolina Debate Circuit and represented our school outstandingly. In February, Cadets Adelman and Lewis journeyed to Williamsburg, Virginia, representing South Carolina in the National Bicentennial Debates.

Debate wasn't the only form of forensic competition this year. Several cadets excelled in dramatic interpretation, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking. A majority of Debate Team members belong to the National Forensic League and several hold advanced degrees of honor, excellence, and distinction. Cadets also participated in the Voice of Democracy Radio Speech Contest and the Optimist Club Oratorical Contest. CMA presently holds second place in the Circuit standings behind A. C. Flora High School and winning out against such schools as: Spring Valley High School, Allendale-Fairfax High School, Dreher High School and others. One member of the squad is also a member of the S. C. State Debate Team. Hard work does pay off as Cadet Adelman has been offered a debate scholarship to the University of South Carolina.

DKS holds bi-monthly meetings in the Library. During these meetings the group holds discussions and presents programs of academic interest.

Delta Kappa Sigma (DKS) honor society is composed of fifteen cadet members, ten seniors and five juniors, who have been selected by the faculty for having displayed qualities of leadership, honor, integrity, and academic excellence. Members of this elite group are distinguished by the special ribbon which they wear on their dress coats, and by pins bearing the DKS insignia.

DKS holds meetings twice monthly to discuss current social issues and to plan outings and field trips. The movies The Lincoln Conspiracy and The Great Late Planet Earth and a guided tour of the nuclear power plant at Hartsville were highlights of this year's excursions. Officers for 1977-78 were Peter Adelman, President; Rory Barth, Vice-President; and Edward Garbade, Secretary and Treasurer.

KP is about the least heard of and least glorious of duties here at CMA. But it is one of the most important. Mrs. Davis and her staff run a tight and disciplined crew of volunteer cadets who are compensated with weekly pay and with merits.

Coached by First Sergeant Walters, CMA's Drill Team, the James F. Risher Guard, had a metamorphic and successful year. Old members of the Carlisle Military School Risher's Rifles took a firm grip and began drill practice early in the year. Using the same routines and techniques which earned the Carlisle drill team first place in the nation, CMA marched home with the following awards at the annual Clemson Tiger Drill Meet:

- First Place Fancy Platoon
- First Place Basic Squad
- Third Place Individual
- First Place Overall
- Best Representation of the Army
- South Carolina Governor's Trophy

The Junior Varsity Drill Team, instrumental in supplying replacement members for the James F. Risher Guard, worked hard on their drill this year and promise successful future competitions.

Library Staff

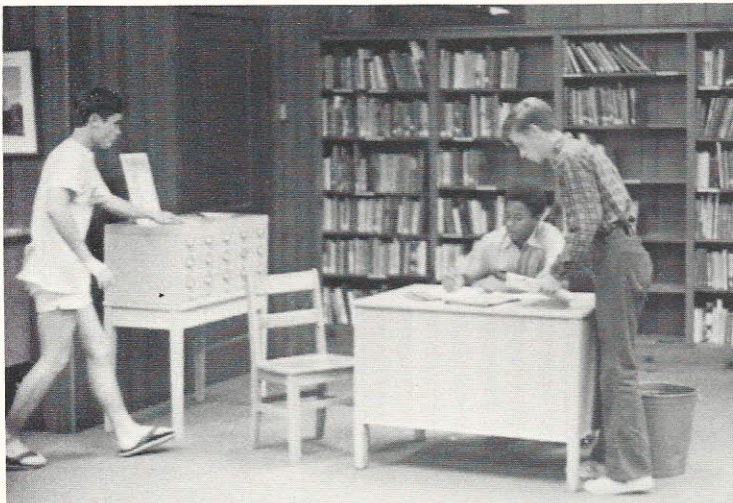

This year's library staff with our librarian, Mrs. Dallas.

At CMA's library, staffed by Mrs. Anne B. Dallas, cadets may check out books, research reference materials, or browse. Mrs. Dallas is in charge of the library during the day, while at night during study hall, cadets on library staff hold the facility open. Staff members help cadets find books, maintain order, and keep the library in top condition. Cadets who sign up for library work learn to use the library to their advantage and earn merits for their work as well.

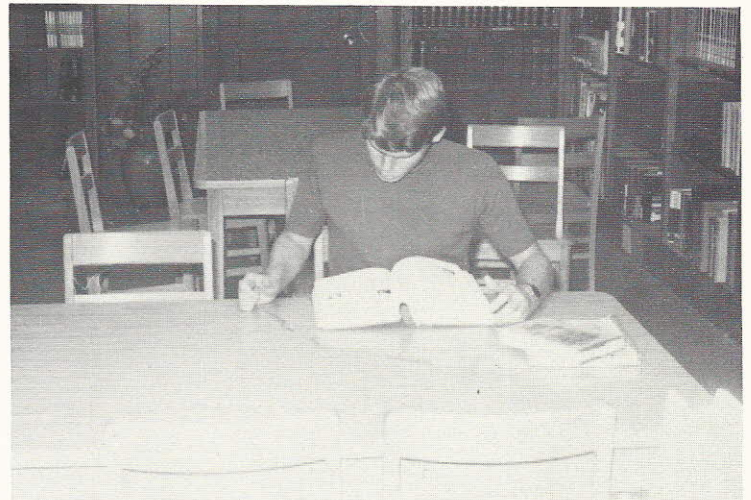

In the stacks are a wealth of references to which Mrs. Dallas constantly adds new books each year. Besides shelves of varied fiction works, are available newspapers, magazines, and films.

Mrs. Dallas serves a double duty as our librarian and acts as "teller" for student bank money.

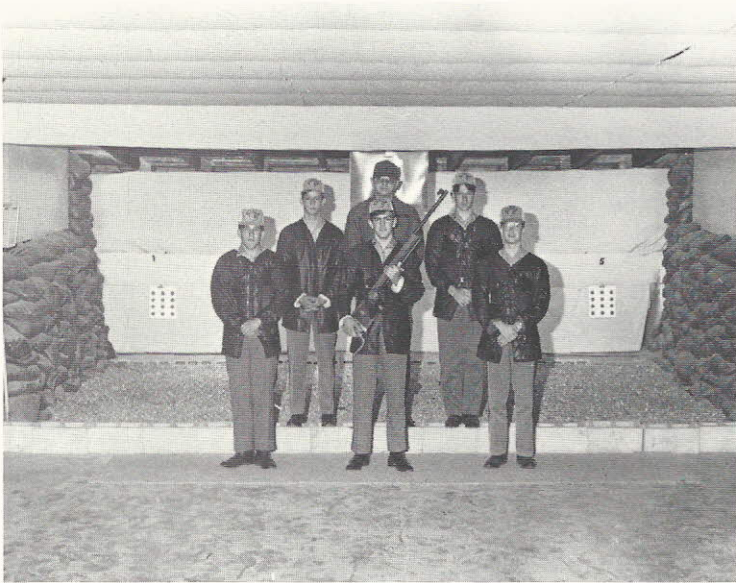

Our library is open during our evening study period for use by the cadets.

Rick Whittle does a bit of extra study during the afternoon.

Success for small bore rifle shooters requires physical and mental control coupled with team spirit and one hundred per cent effort on the firing line. The Rifle Team fires in many different types of matches on ranges varying from fifty feet to one hundred yards, and in one to four different firing positions. The team practices in our own five point, fifty foot range. Under the guidance of SFC Cayton and SFC Darrow, they achieved these recent records:

- First, National ROTC 1977
- First, SC NRA and ROTC 1977
- First, Florida State Team 1977
- Second, Georgia NRA Team 1977
- First, SC Three Position Team 1977

Busses

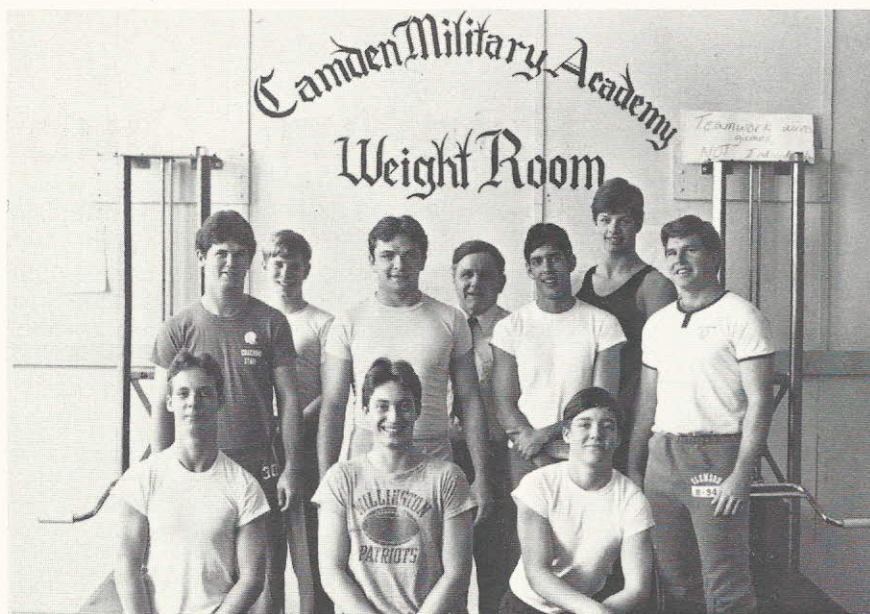

Our blue and white busses and our vans operate every day carrying cadets to various activities and locations throughout the Camden area and beyond.

Laundry Staff: Zoot, McCoy, Woodall, McCoy, Saylars, Capt. Tucker.

Weight Room Staff

Bigger biceps, pulsating pectorals, and increased calves result from "pumping iron" in our greatly improved weight lifting room. Full carpeting and new weights and weight bars contribute to a first class body building facility.

Gym Staff

The Gym Staff keeps our sports arena clean for our many sporting events, for student assemblies, and for dances.

Rec-Room Staff

Rec Room Staff this year has unselfishly devoted time and energy to make the facility a pleasant place to relax for an evening or an afternoon. Commander Feltham, faculty adviser, has assisted the staff in securing replacement materials for equipment already installed and on hand, and in obtaining a new pinball machine.

Fine Arts Club with Cpt. Green.

Fine Arts Club

This year's Fine Arts Club was headed by Captain Green, assisted by Mrs. Risher, Mrs. White, and Mrs. Feltham. Among their activities were craft days in the Fine Arts Room where they worked on ceramics, shirt painting, and decoupage. Besides monthly meetings, field trips to art shows and to movies were enjoyed by members of the group.

Informal Activity

Maj. Gale reviewing copy and aiding in the layout.

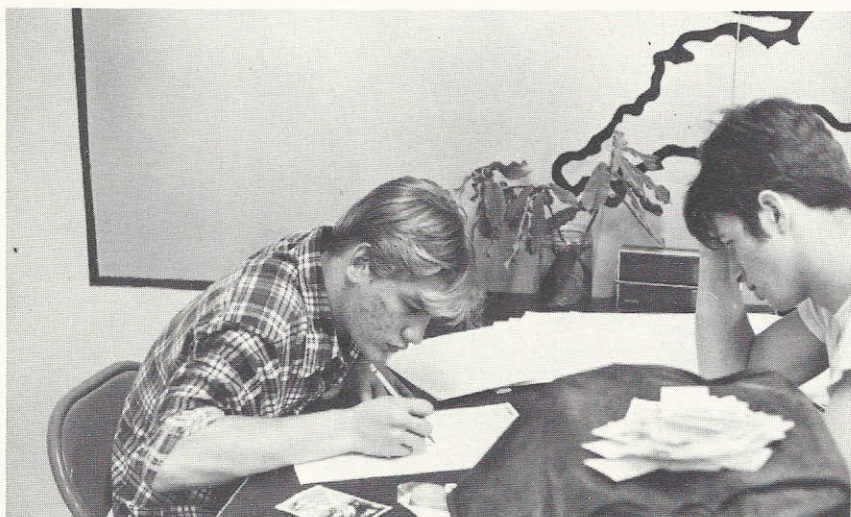

From the Desk of the Editor:

As quickly as another year of CMA has gone by, lots of things can be forgotten. But to keep memories alive, the Excalibur Staff spent hours photographing, writing copy and captions, designing layouts, etc.

Edited by Peter Adelman, Major Gale's first semester advanced English Composition Class, succeeded by his fifth period senior English Class second semester, put it all together. Matt Rodgers and Chris Hayden bore a major part of the labor to meet the publisher's deadline. Compiled is a unique collection of CMA remembrances.

I would like to thank the many, many, many people who helped with the myriad odds and ends of the production.

Peter Adelman — Editor

THERE WILL ALWAYS BE SOMEONE
TAKING YOUR MEASURE

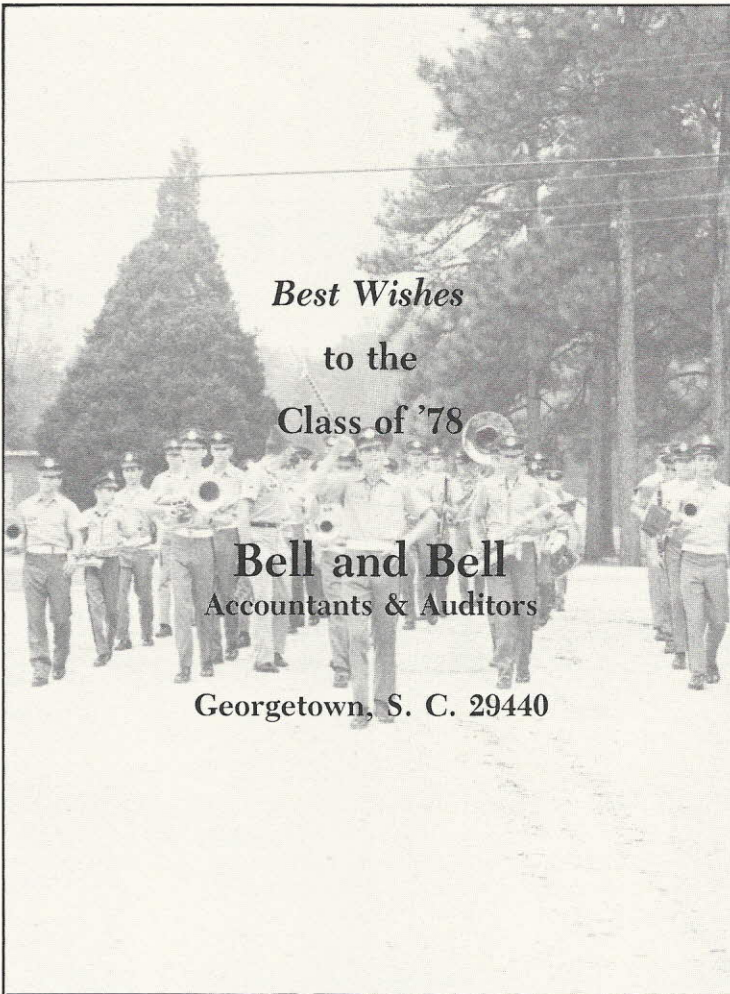

Some measures are taken with a tape but the more important measures of life are taken by the people who size us up, whether it be a sweetheart, a classmate, a son or daughter, or a prospective employer. There is always some keen eye, whether we know it or not, scrutinizing the dimensions not only of our physiques but of our minds, abilities and characters.

Your training at Camden Military Academy has been designed to improve the dimensions of both your mind and character so that when you graduate it can be said that here stands a Cadet foursquare to the world, ready and eager to shoulder the responsibilities which his particular talents and abilities qualify him to assume.

We measure Cadets for uniforms. Our customers measure us in their appraisal of our ability to execute a uniform contract satisfactorily. It will be a never-ending effort on our part to keep our measurements good in the eyes of Camden Military Academy.

Thanks to all who have helped me during my tenure at CMA. Those who have molded my character and helped to guide my ship. Through the thick and the thin true friends have been at my side. Good luck to those that follow and the best that life can offer to all.

Alma Mater

Mighty Camden, we salute thee now
And may this be our eternal vow,
That the truths held dear
By thy code austere
Shall thunder in our ear.
In adversity
Let us steadfast be,
And face life's trials without fear.
May love of God and love of man,
Freedom, truth, and duty to our land,
Forge a bond between us,
Man to man.

By COL. LANNING P. RISHER,
*Headmaster,
Camden Military Academy.*

Cadet Prayer

Heavenly Father, we beseech Thee to behold with Thy favor this, our Academy, that, through the care and instruction of the young men committed to it, Thy Name may be glorified. Be Thou guide to those upon whom rests its government; enlighten with wisdom those who teach; and grant that we who learn may be blessed in our studies, and our characters so molded that we may evermore stand fast in Thy truth and abide in Thy love, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

By THE RIGHT REVEREND ALBERT S. THOMAS,
S.T.D. (1873-1967),

*Sometime Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese
