Sparta was a powerful Greek city-state, famous for its military power and loyal soldiers. Endurance, a scorn of luxury, and unyielding firmness are still spoken of as Spartan virtues.

DEVELOPING LEADERSHIP FROM WITHIN THE CORPS

Military training is a valuable influence upon young men, teaching them first to take orders and then providing authority to give them. CMA cadets necessarily feel responsibility to each other for their own actions. Through experience, growth, maturity, and character development, cadets assume increased authority and responsibility naturally.

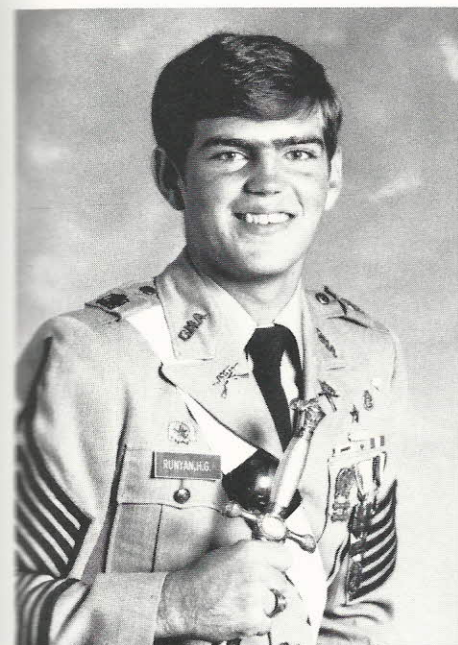

The training program includes drill, ceremony, leadership preparation, and classes in military science and tactics, integral to the overall intellectual, physical, and moral development of each cadet. Military customs and courtesies are strictly observed and the distinctive cadet uniform is worn at all times.

Designated an M1 Junior ROTC school, Camden Military Academy is rated an Honor Unit with Distinction by the Department of the Army. The corps of cadets is formed into one infantry battalion, commanded by a cadet lieutenant colonel; A, B, and C Companies, each commanded by a cadet captain; and a band company, also commanded by a cadet captain. Companies are comprised of two platoons, each of which is commanded by a cadet second lieutenant. Competition between companies in drill, in barracks maintenance, and in discipline is keen. Overall winner in this year-long competition is designated Honor Company.

The '79 season for the CMA Spartans turned out a success. With only three returning starters, the team, with fine coaching and hard work, produced a 5-2-1 record. After losing the first game and tying the second, the team sprang back with a five-game winning streak, only to have it end in the conference championship to Spartanburg Day School. In spite of this disappointment, we would like to thank the team for one of the best winning percentages the school has seen and also a second place in the conference.

Ben Johnson kicks for the first half.

The JV Spartans' record did not turn out as hoped. But the statistics do not reflect the team's playing ability. They worked hard throughout the season, proudly coached by Coach Steven Tucker.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Cecil Faile tips off for the Spartans.

Captains Fennell, Faile, Forney.

CMA's varsity basketball team started out the season on the wrong foot; but the team practiced and worked hard to correct their mistakes. Captain Fred Taylor coached the eleven-man team, with only four returning players, bringing out the best in each man, producing a respectable record. We should be proud of the 79-80 varsity team.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Coach Huff fills in the team on the game plan.

Hambrick on the lay-up.

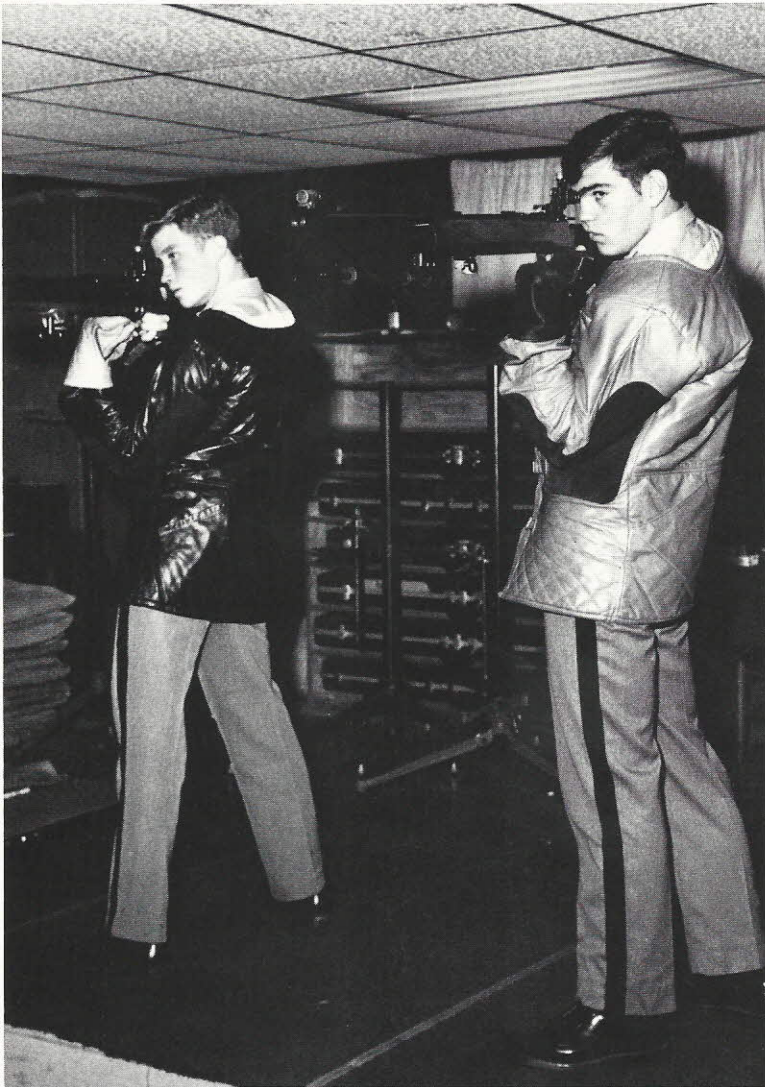

Warming up before the game.

Winning the first game, Captain Tommy Huff coached his boys to a very profitable season. Each player learned a lot and the season turned out well. Coach Huff was happy with the team's output and was pleased with the season. We should be proud of the 79-80 junior Spartans.

DAVIS' DEAD-EYES

Returning Lettermen: Kneeling: Lowe. Standing: JE Jones, H.G. Runyan, SFC Davis, Cheek, Calvert.

For the past decade, the CMA Rifle Team has displayed superior marksmanship. This year, with the addition of several new members, our team continued on with this tradition of excellence by winning numerous matches throughout the Southeast and the nation. Under the direction of SFC John A. Davis, the team practices constantly to insure perfection.

This year's soccer team was one of the best CMA has ever fielded. Coach Steve Tucker picked his team and proceeded to teach them all he knew, which must have been considerable since the team played like professionals and compiled an excellent record.

Intramurals are a major activity here at Camden Military Academy, assuring every student an active part in competitive athletics. Directed by Commander John Feltham, cadets participate in sports of their choice in preparation for company playoffs each six weeks, with each member of the winning company receiving one merit. Except for those playing in intermural athletics, all cadets participate in the intramural program.

Ancient Spartans were strong, participating in many activities to develop endurance, strength, cleverness, and the ability to think out difficult problems. In the twentieth century, CMA Spartan experiences demand many of those same capabilities. As an integral part of the school program, cadets participate in varied extra-curricular activity, promoting a sense of self-reliance and practical leadership.

LOOK OUT, LAWRENCE WELK

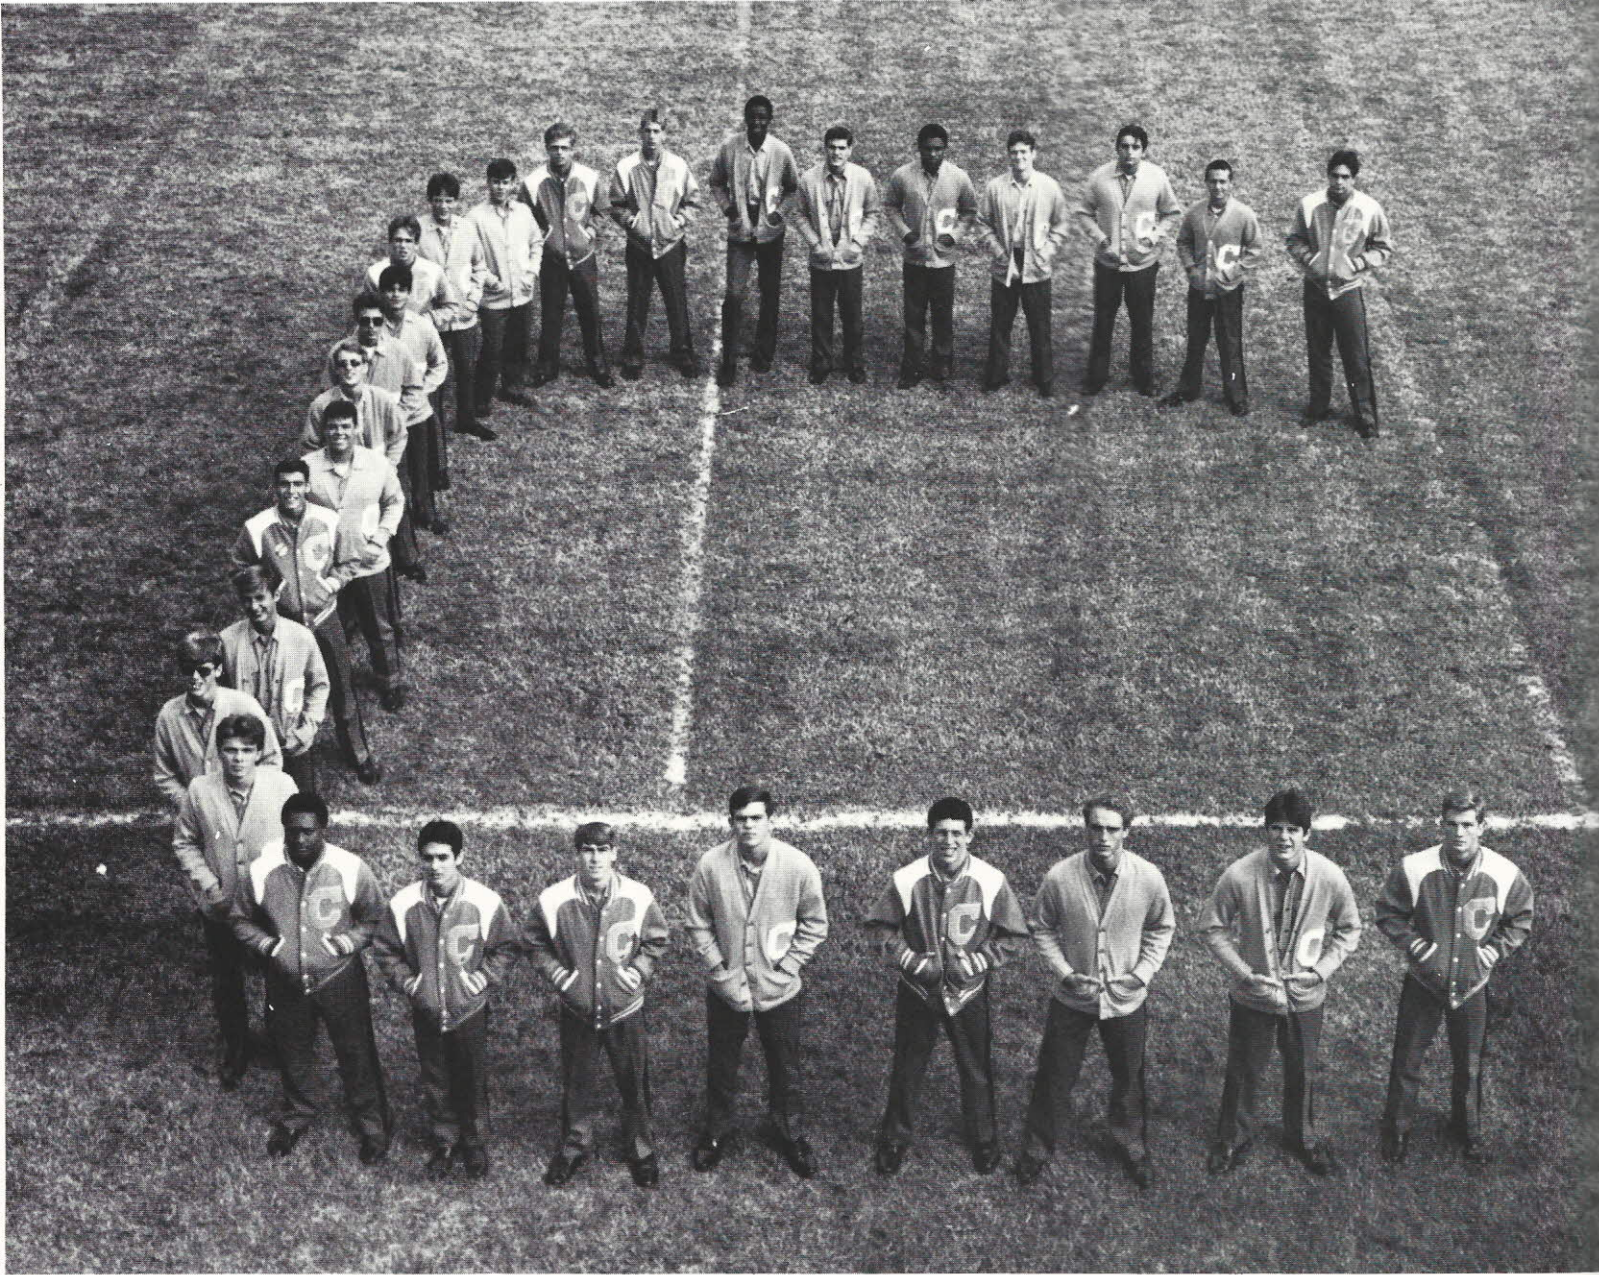

Captain David Green is the leader of our bands. This year's band class was not an easy "A" on a student's report card. Only musicians who can play all of their music get top grades and go on trips. Captain Green's academic strategy works. This year's pep band, jazz band, and especially the marching band, are probably the best CMA has ever heard.

Block "C": (upper R to lower R) Faile, Shaw, Dereix, Hawkins, Forney, JJ Gardner, Fennell, Beeson, Blake, Drake, GBT Ferguson, CL Runyan, Dubon, Douglas, Bolick, Hall, Blevins, RL Clark, Copeland, Abercrombie, Kornegay, Tucci, Osteen, HG Runyan, Sealey, O'Cain, WG Bailey, and Cheek.

"C" HOW THEY RUN

The fighting Spartans of CMA are the many cadets who strive to be varsity athletes. To become a member of the Block "C" Club, a cadet must have lettered in a varsity sport, an honor earned after hours of practice each day and after confronting the opposing teams on the athletic field. Each Block "C" member knows it's worth all the effort for the privilege of wearing a "C".

RECREATION ROOM

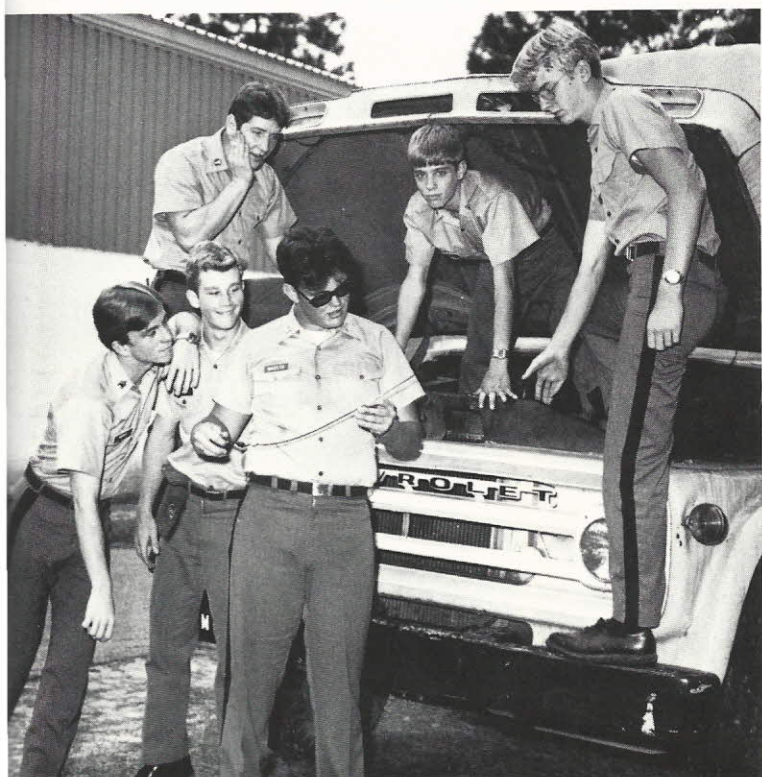

The "rec room" is the ideal place to unwind. What better place to take out frustrations than on a pinball machine?

The Staff: (L to R) Swanson, Rusch, Cmdr Feltham, O'Neal, GBT Ferguson, Hudnell, CL Krivohlavek, Allen.

“The bus will leave for downtown . . .”

All cadets depend and rely upon cadet bus drivers, be it for a ride downtown, to church, to the doctor, to a ballgame, or whatever. This year's drivers performed their tasks well and kept CMA moving.

Oh well, it's only three quarts low.

BOOGIE-ING

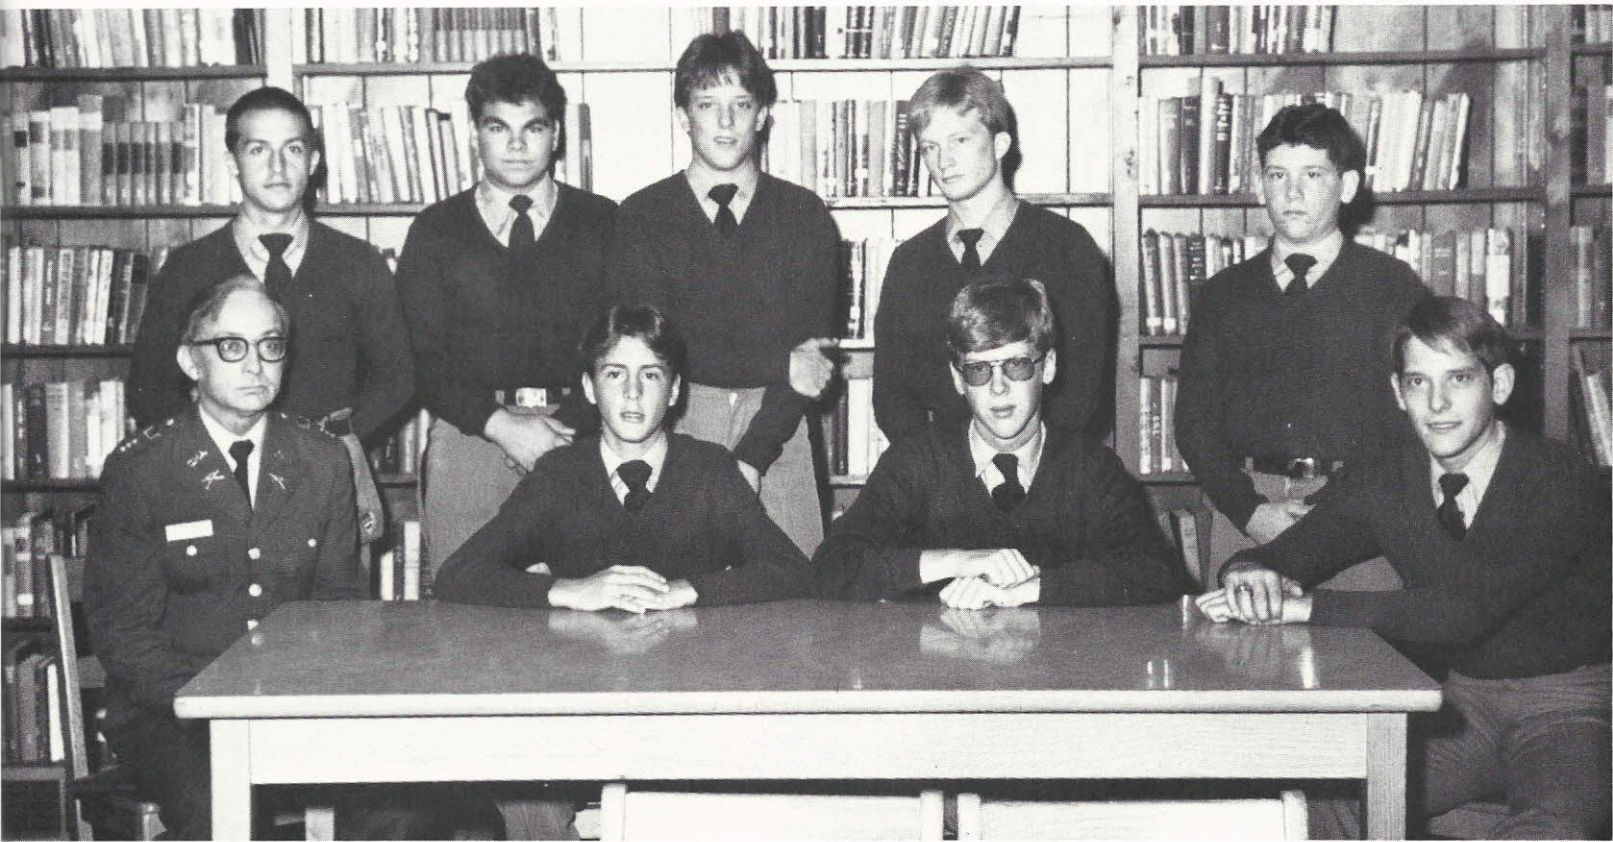

CMA's Dance Committee has one of the hardest jobs on campus. The gym is a much-used campus facility. As a sports activity concludes, dance committee often has only six hours to transform the gym into a dance hall, and often have even less time to tear it all down. Hard work though it is, it all pays off as cadets, dates, faculty, staff, parents, and friends get out there and express themselves on the dance floor.

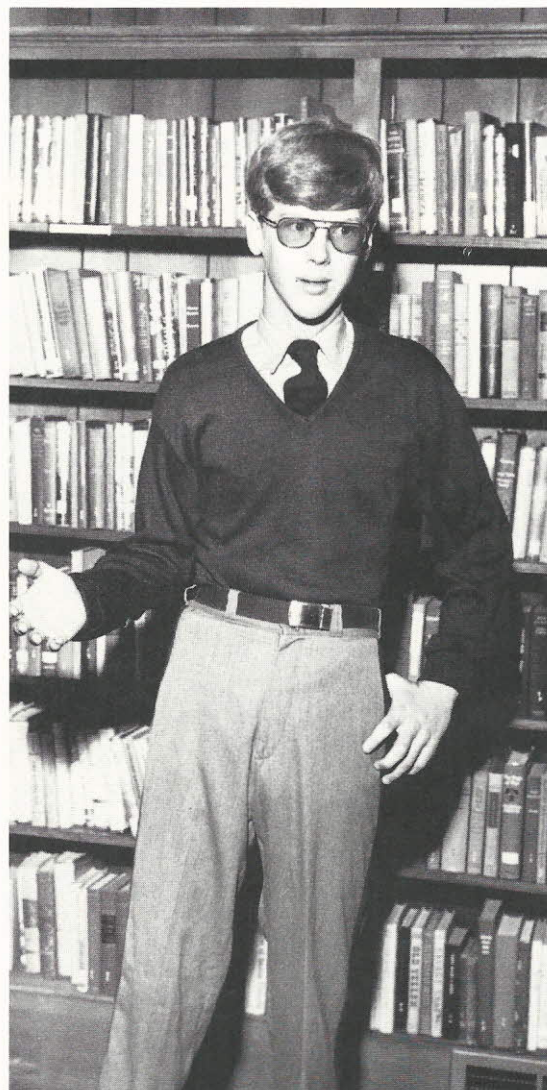

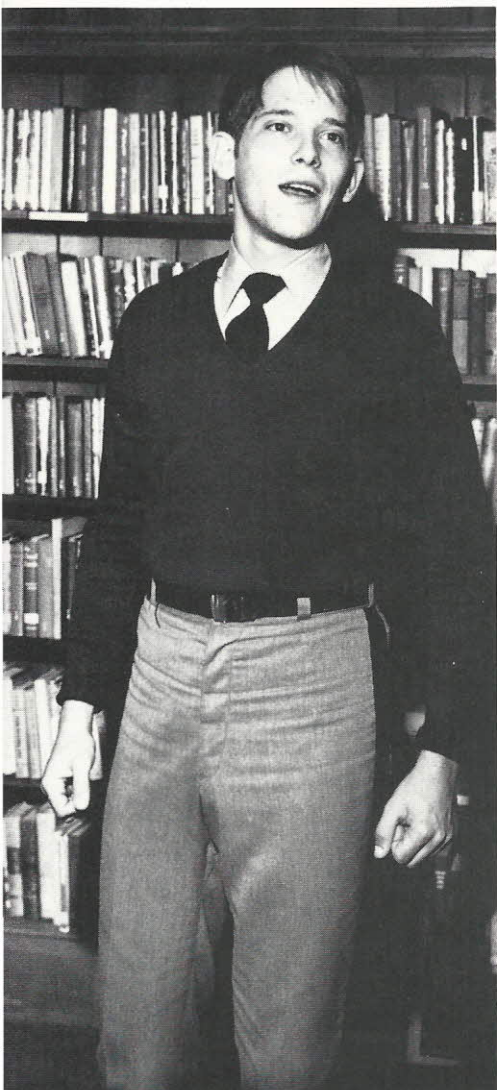

Dancing can make you hungry.

Say "Cheese."

MORRIS'S MARAUDERS

CMA's highly acclaimed debate team upheld their excellent reputation this year. Captain Morris provided strong support and drove the team to new levels of competence. The group's successes are truly noteworthy when you consider there were only two returning members.

MHT Ferguson delivering a dramatic speech.

Ms. Davis and her crew: (l to r) Esther Hankims, Willene Lane, Faye Rose, Char Haynesworth, and Ms. Davis. (not pictured: Uncle Charlie)

DQ Gardner prepares for the evening meal.

MESSHALL MADNESS

In the course of a school year, Mrs. Davis produces thousands upon thousands of individual meals. While she handles the brunt of the work, kitchen helpers assist her preparing the food and washing dishes, and KPs actually serve the battalion.

Tea time.

Enraptured by the president.

Our leader, Major Thorp.

It is time for cartoons, who wants to adjourn?

The "prez," Gregg Runyan.

HONORABLE SPARTANS

CMA has 15 honorable cadets who belong to CMA's only fraternal honor society, Delta Kappa Sigma. To become a member of DKS, a cadet must possess a good attitude, show his leadership potential, and earn excellent grades. DKS members exemplify those positive traits instilled in youth of ancient Sparta.

Our dedicated Mrs. Dallas.

READING, REFERENCE, AND RHETORIC

As head librarian, Mrs. Anne Dallas selects responsible cadets for her library staff. Each must have knowledge of books and where they are shelved in CMA's library. Mrs. Dallas' library assistants work hard, but reward for their efforts is the satisfaction of assuring smooth operation of our academic center.

Maintenance men prepare and repair.

MAJOR JIM'S GYM

CMA's loyal gym staff maintains the facility and keeps everything organized. Major James Dozier heads the staff, and always manages to assure a smooth operation. The gym staff's hard work insures our athletes are happy.

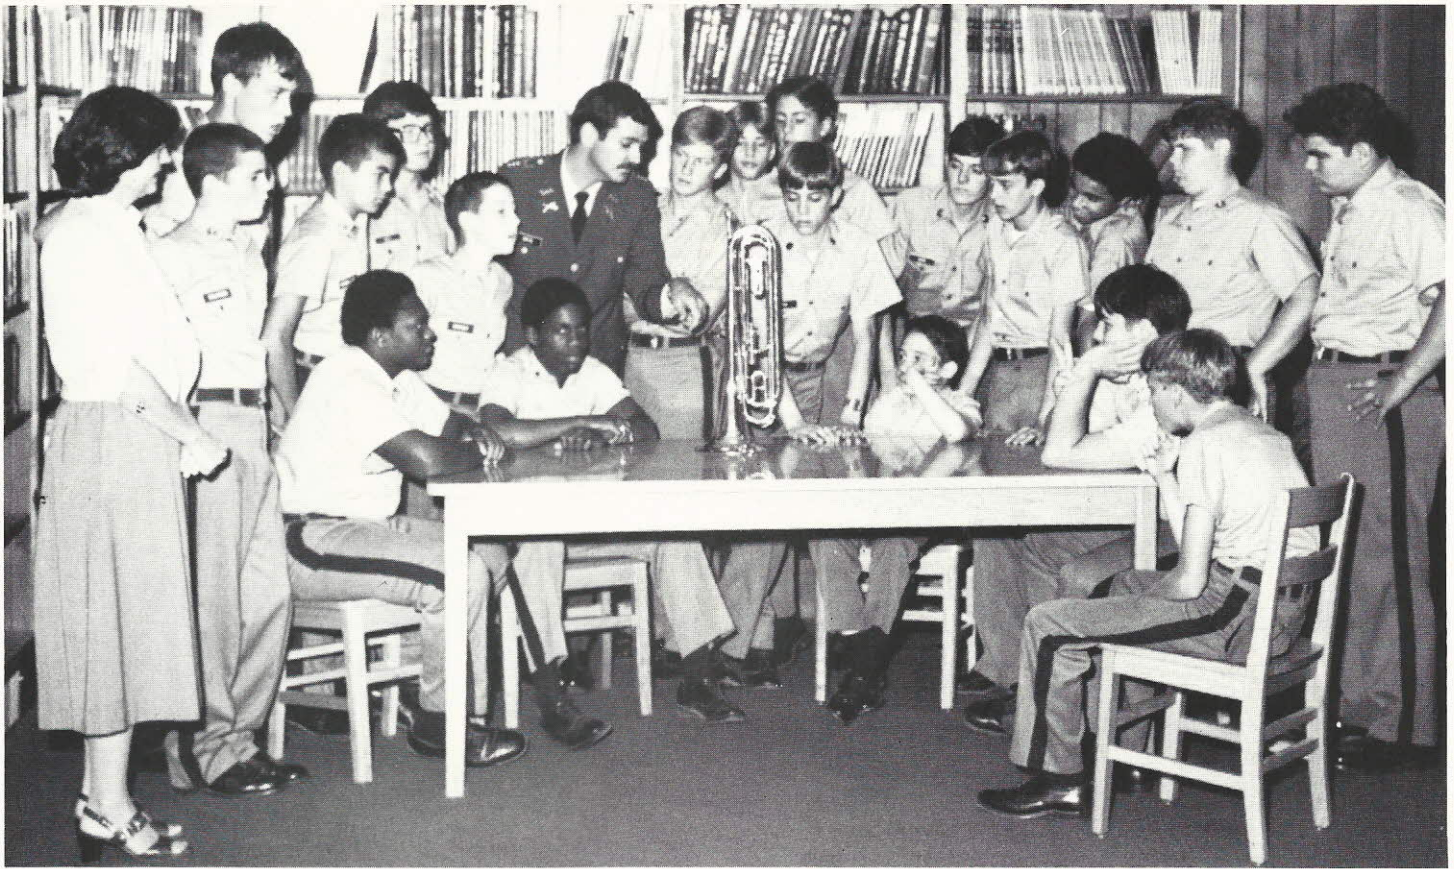

You could at least learn how to dribble.

IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT

Driver's Education is an important training course taught by LtC. William P. Beckham. Fundamentals of driving, including knowledge of laws and protocol of the road, and actual behind-the-wheel experience are part of the program.

Drivers Ed.: (L to R) McLeary, Roberts, White, Bolick, Douglas, Rusch (in car), Col. Beckham, Layton (kneeling), Lackey, Self, Forbes.

Fine Arts: (L to R) Mrs. Risher, Stalmasek, Aldridge, SM Morris, Kornegay, Self, Grimsley, Rhodes, Capt. Green, Cecil, Swanson, Beck, O'Neal, CR Morris, Webb, DK Brown, GE Clark, Carr, Mendelsohn, Kelley, Goza.

Captain Green demonstrates the fine art of writing music.

ART IS FINE

Fine Arts Club is a group of cadets who study all sorts of aesthetic delights, including painting, ceramics, music, and photography. The club is headed by Captain David Green, Mrs. Lanning P. Risher, and Mrs. Charles R. White. The group often travels to art exhibits, to museums, to plays, etc., and generally has a very good time while developing an increased appreciation of cultural offerings.

Mrs. Risher critiques a painting.

Get my laundry off the floor.

What's your number?

SPIC 'N SPAN

This year's Laundry Staff efficiently turns it in on Mondays and gives it out again on Thursdays. Captain James White and his staff are dedicated to perform a task that is as essential to complete as it is taken for granted to carry out.

The Staff: (L to R) Hedgepath, Wilkes, SC Brown, Dahlgren (in the bag), Butler (upside down), Allen, Kelley, Wilson, Captain James White.

Is he that bad?

THE MEN FROM ATLANTIS

This year's pool staff had it easier than previously, with a new pool complete with a modern filtration system. They also enjoyed it more because we now have one of the nicest pools in the whole state. Lifeguarding demands responsibility, and it can get tedious, but our pool staff members insure safety and a good time for all.

THE FRONT PAGE

Extra, Extra, read all about it . . .

This year's Adjutant staff, comprised of the sixth period English Composition Class, produced weekly some of the most readable and informative newspapers ever published on this campus. Students write, edit, produce, and distribute the publication right here on campus.

The same group compiles the Excalibur, CMA's yearbook. The results of that effort are these very pages.

The entire staff works for a better publication.

 2) What's the only English four-letter word that ends in "eny". Eeny doesn't count!

 2) Three feet, (the boat rises with the tide).

Sit at the SAT

Tomorrow, a small group of nervous seniors will travel to Camden High to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test. The test measures a student's scholastic competency, and is evaluated by the college a person applies to. Good Luck!

Visitors Day

Cadets, it's that time again: Annual Visitors' Day. The day's activities will begin with inspection of the barracks by parents from 2:00-3:30. A Band concert is scheduled for 2:30 outside the Band room. At 3:30, the Drill team will show their precision in an excellent performance on the Parade Field. After the Drill team's exhibition, a Dress Parade will follow at 3:50. The day will finish with a reception for everyone in the Dining Hall. Happy Visitors' Day!

Cadet Portrait Days

It's your time, underclassmen, for your pictures. So shine those Dress coats and look sharp. The pictures will be taken November 5th and 6th.

The Excalibur Staff will announce, prior to picture taking, where, when, and how the pictures will be taken.

In Closing

This was no ordinary year. Much went on outside our little world here at Camden Military Academy — some good, some bad, some outright terrible. But this year marks the turn of the decade, a chance to start over, to resolve problems which arose during the seventies.

The seventies were ten good years. We witnessed the end of the Vietnam War; increased concern for ecology; the first trans-Atlantic crossing by balloon; a test tube baby; greater concern for good physical health; ERA; the Apollo-Soyuz meeting; color pictures of Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn; digital computers, calculators, watches, and games; and Skylab was manned for three months.

It wasn't all fun and games, however. We also witnessed Kent State, Watergate, saccharin scares, Vallium abuses, busing riots, dollar-plus per gallon gas, the Iran crisis, and Skylab's descent on Australia. Events often reflected public apathy, a malaise which threatened to bring America down for the count. But she kept on punching.

The world bout with which the Class of 1980 must contend probably won't be easy rounds, but no one ever guaranteed they would be. Goodbye, faculty; goodbye, CMA; and, hardest of all, goodbye, friends. Just as we bade goodbye and farewell to the seventies, we must bid adieu to our CMA community, remembering the good times, having learned from the bad.

Look out, world. The Class of 1980 is coming.
